The Big Mirror

John A. Reid

The Big Mirror:

The Fable of the Mirrors Xie Weihe, 2024-07-24 This book examines the impact of network society on self identity and education and proposes key tasks for transforming education in network society Using the metaphor of the mirror the book describes the environment and changes in network society based on the internet and information technology As the diversity and complexity of network society increases people see more and more self images in the large mirrors leading to a variety of developmental orientations and self identities as well as more opportunities for objectification However this often leads to confusion as to which image in the mirror really represents oneself This social framework which forms the backdrop of modern education poses new challenges for self identity formation and educational development The author emphasizes the role of education in constructing a new mirror that can lead children and young people to a better perception of themselves and thus to self identification and self realization The title will be of interest to scholars and students in the fields of educational theory and sociology of education as well as general readers interested in topics related to network society identity and education
