Lensing, 1986-12-01 In Wallace Stevens A Poet's Growth George S Lensing examines Stevens gradual emergence and development as a poet tracing his life from his formative years in Pennsylvania to his careers as a lawyer for the Hartford Accident and Indemnity Company and as one of the major poets of the twentieth century Lensing draws extensively upon previously unpublished material from the Stevens archive at the Huntington Library which contains letters early drafts of poems and notebooks Two notebooks Schemata and From Pieces of Paper are here reproduced in full The study is divided into three sections In the first Lensing examines the years before the publication of Sevens first volume of poetry paying special attention to the forces that hindered and enhanced his progress toward modernity In the second we see Stevens in the exercise of his craft Lensing discusses the influence of the Romantics on the verse Stevens wrote as an undergraduate at Harvard his interest in Oriental art Cubism and Fauvism his anticipation of Imagism and his imitation of certain French Symbolists Sources of the epigraphs to Stevens poems are identified fully for the first time suggesting the role of Stevens vast reading upon his poetry Also considered is Stevens voluminous correspondence with people from all over the world some of whom he never met personally These letters helped rescue Stevens from the insularity of his business life and aided in the making of his poems. The final section treats the critical responses to Stevens poetry by such people as Harriet Monroe editor and founder of Poetry who was the first important reader and publisher of his work Attention is also given to Stevens explications of his poems Wallace Stevens A Poet s Growth is a comprehensive examination of Stevens live and work This study provides abundant new material which will be of value to scholars and to those readers who are drawn to Stevens poetry Dictionary Catalog of the Harris Collection of American Poetry and Plays, Brown University Library, Providence, Rhode Island Brown University. Australian National Bibliography ,1983 Southern Crossings Daniel Cross Turner,2012-08-30 Daniel Cross Turner has made a key contribution to the critical study and appreciation of the diverse field of contemporary Southern poetics Southern Crossings crosses a gulf in contemporary poetry criticism while using the idea or ideas many and contrary

of Southernness to appraise poetries created from the profuse tangled histories of the region Turner's close readings are dynamic even lyrical He offers a new understanding of rhythm's central place in contemporary poetry while considering the work of fifteen poets Through his focus on varied yet interwoven forms of cultural memory Turner also shows that memory is not in fact pass The way we remember has as much to say about our present as our past memory is living shifting culturally formed and framed This is a valuable and important book that entwines new visions of poetic forms with forms of regional remembrance and identity Natasha Trethewey Pulitzer Prize winner and author of Native Guard Poems Offering new perspectives on a diversity of recent and still practicing southern poets from Robert Penn Warren and James Dickey to Betty Adcock Charles Wright Yusef Komunyakaa Natasha Trethewey and others this study brilliantly illustrates poetry s value as a genre well suited to investigating historical conditions and the ways in which they are culturally assimilated and remembered Daniel Cross Turner sets the stage for his wide ranging explorations with an introductory discussion of the famous Fugitive poets John Crowe Ransom Allen Tate and Donald Davidson and their vision of a constant southerness that included an emphasis on community and kinship remembrance of the Civil War and its glorified pathos of defeat and a distinctively southern white voice Combining poetic theory with memory studies he then shows how later poets with their own unique forms of cultural remembrance have reimagined and critiqued the idealized view of the South offered by the Fugitives This more recent work reflects not just trauma and nostalgia but makes equally trenchant uses of the past including historiophoty the recording of history through visual images and countermemory resistant strains of cultural memory that disrupt official historical accounts As Turner demonstrates the range of poetries produced within and about the American South from the 1950s to the present helps us to recalibrate theories of collective remembrance on regional national and even transnational levels With its array of new insights on poets of considerable reputation six of the writers discussed here have won at least one Pulitzer Prize for poetry Southern Crossings makes a signal contribution to the study of not only modern poetics and literary theory but also of the U S South and its place in the larger world Daniel Cross Turner is an assistant professor of English at Coastal Carolina University His articles which focus on regional definition in national and global contexts and on aesthetic forms potential to record historical transitions appear in edited collections as well as journals including Genre Mosaic the Southern Literary Journal the Southern Quarterly and the Mississippi Quarterly Flapping Soul, Words in Verse Marleen Rita Duckhorn, 2013-10-29 Our souls are like sheets on a clothesline flapping in the cosmic breeze We are pinned to them all our lives They never fail us They are gateways and our entrance into a divine cosmos which includes a peaceful union to all of creation Sometimes there may even be humor if the clothesline collapses due to a gust of wind or storm but we always pick the line up hang our hat and clothes out to dry and start over It is always thus Now with Duckhorns latest book of poems Flapping Soul Words in Verse you can enjoy a positive read through our relationship with our soul from a poets viewpoint plus related subjects all with her lighthearted style of writing
