Born in 1860 in Scotland, James Matthew Barrie was profoundly influenced by his childhood experiences and the loss of his brother, which instilled in him a lifelong fascination with the themes of youth and mortality. The White Room Craig Higginson,2019-01-15

From celebrated South African novelist and playwright, Craig Higginson, an international literary tale of loss and love. South African playwright Hannah Meade arrives in London for the opening night of her new play. She has arranged to meet Pierre, the student she was in love with when she taught English in Paris. During their time together, they lied their way towards truths they were too young and inexperienced to endure. Perhaps this time they will have a second chance. As the reader is drawn from contemporary London back to Paris on the eve of the war in Iraq, the mystery of past events is brought to vivid life in a series of dramatic, intriguing, and deeply moving encounters. Written in layered, stark prose, The White Room lays bare many of our assumptions about language, identity, memory, loss, and love.
