

the BOBBY RICHARDSON story

Bobby Richardson is one of baseball's all-time greats. Ralph Houk, General Manager of the New York Yankees says:

"He is the best second baseman I have known. He is the type of person I think all fathers would like to see their sons grow up to be."

Tom Tresh, Yankee outfielder says:

"Bobby is the ball player's ball player. His success on the field is a matter of record, but more important is that he is an example of everything fine, not only as an athlete, but as a person."

Yankee pitcher, Steve Hamilton says:

"Bobby Richardson truly lives by the same high moral standards by which he encourages the youth of America to live. Adversity never causes him deep despair nor does success spoil him."

It's a long way from Sumter, South Carolina, to Yankee Stadium. Bobby Richardson has not only made the trip, but he has set a series of unprecedented records as the star second baseman of the New York Yankees. He led the Yankees in batting and total hits in 1964. He stepped up to the plate 679 times and for the third consecutive year led the American League in times at bat. One hundred and eighty-one of those times he got a hit! He set the World Series record for the most hits in a seven game series—13 in 1964 against the St. Louis Cardinals. He is one of an elite group of ten players to hit a grand slam home run in a World Series game. This occurred in 1960 against the Pittsburgh Pirates. He holds the record of the most runs batted in in one World Series game—5 against Pittsburgh in 1960; and the most RBIs in a World Series—12 against Pittsburgh in 1960. He tied the series record for the most runs scored, and tied another record by hitting two triples in one World Series game. He is the winner of the Sport Magazine "Corvette" awarded to him as the most outstanding player in the 1960 World Series.

Bobby Richardson is an outstanding Christian as well as an outstanding athlete. He is an active member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and his performances on the baseball diamond complement his way of life the year round.

The Bobby Richardson Story . . . told in his own words . . . reveals what happens to the athlete who hears the crowd roar for him in jam-packed Yankee Stadium—the player who is the hero of the game—the man of the hour.

Bobby Richardson has had the privilege of telling his story to countless thousands upon thousands of young people. He has had the privilege of seeing many, many of them make the decision to crown Christ Lord of All. The most significant thing about Bobby Richardson's story is that it comes directly from his heart. It is no wonder that sports writers and the general press as well have often talked about this remarkable, dedicated young man. You'll understand why each time you listen to THE BOBBY RICHARDSON STORY.
