Adventure To Borneo: Off The Beaten Tracks Subir Chatterjee, 2025-08-25 The author's aim is to share his experiences through writing providing detailed descriptions of the wildlife and biodiversity he has encountered in the rain forest of Borneo This book is his way of documenting the rich variety of life found within the Bornean rainforest one of the most biologically diverse places on Earth To give readers a true sense of being in the heart of the Borneo rainforest the author included a wide range of photos and digital video clips throughout this book All these photos and videos are clicked by the author himself When the readers scan the QR codes of these videos they are carried straight into the rainforest It's almost like having a personal window into this lush environment The inclusion of such clips shows how technology can make entertaining books more interactive and captivating especially for those who might never have the chance to visit in person

Immersion and Distance. Werner Wolf, Walter Bernhart, Andreas Mahler, 2013 Readers who appear to be lost in a storyworld members of theatre or cinema audiences who are moved to tears while watching a performance beholders of paintings who are absorbed by the representations in front of them players of computer games entranced by the fictional worlds in which they interactively participate all of these mental states of imaginative immersion are variants of aesthetic illusion as long as the recipients although thus immersed are still residually aware that they are experiencing not real life but life like representations created by artefacts Aesthetic illusion is one of the most forceful effects of reception processes in representational media and thus constitutes a powerful allurement to expose ourselves again and again to e.g. printed stories pictures and films be they factual or fictional In contrast to traditional discussions of this phenomenon which tend to focus on one medium or genre from one discipline only the present volume explores aesthetic illusion as well as its reverse side the breaking of illusion from a highly innovative multidisciplinary and transmedial perspective The essays assembled stem from disciplines that range from literary theory to art history and include contributions on drama lyric poetry the visual arts photography architecture instrumental music and computer games as well as reflections on the cognitive foundations of aesthetic illusion from an evolutionary perspective The contributions to individual media and aspects of aesthetic illusion are prefaced by a detailed theoretical introduction Owing to its transmedial and multidisciplinary scope the volume will be relevant to students and scholars from a wide variety of fields cultural history at large intermediality and media studies as well as more particularly literary studies music film and art history Time Out Sydney Cathy Phillips,2005 Following the success of the 2000 Olympics and the 2003 Rugby World Cup the harbourside jewel of Sydney is more alluring than ever Multicultural laid back and hedonistic it s got the lot a stunning natural setting a perfect climate and a staggering array of attractions from the world famous Opera House to the southern hemisphere s most vibrant gay and lesbian scene Written and researched by local journalists writers and experts the Time Out Sydney Guide takes you to the heart of Australia s most exciting city It also heads beyond the urban sprawl to the coasts rivers and mountains of New South Wales plus the best of the rest of Australia Insight Guides Arizona & The Grand Canyon Insight
