scholars who have experienced or explored the continent's conflicts and woes including how the disruptions shape artistic and literary production The book is divided into two broad categories in one several writers speak directly and with rich anecdotal details about the impact wars and conflicts have had in the formation of their experience and work in the second a number of scholars articulate how particular writers have assimilated the horrors of wars and conflicts in their literary creations The result is an invaluable harvest of reflections and perspectives that open the window into an essential but until now sadly unexplored facet of the cultural and political experience of African writers The broad scope of this collection covering Darfur the Congolese crisis Biafra Zimbabwe South Africa among others is complemented by a certain buoyancy of spirit that runs through most of the essays and anecdotes New Wars for Old John Haynes Holmes, 1916 Indian
