Lanza,2016-04-22 Looking especially at widows of master craftsmen in early modern Paris this study provides analysis of the social and cultural structures that shaped widows lives as well as their day to day experiences Janine Lanza examines widows in early modern Paris at every social and economic level beginning with the late sixteenth century when changes in royal law curtailed the movement of property within families up to the time of the French Revolution The glimpses she gives us of widows running businesses debating remarriage and negotiating marriage contracts offer precious insights into the daily lives of women in this period Lanza shows that understanding widows dramatically alters our understanding of gender not only in terms of how it was lived in this period but also how historians can use this idea as a category of analysis Her study also engages the historiographical issue of business and entrepreneurship particularly women s participation in the world of work and explicitly examines the place of the law in the lived experience of the early modern period How did widowed women use their newly acquired legal emancipation How did they handle their emotional loss How did their roles in their families and their communities change How did they remain financially solvent without a man in the house How did they make decisions that had always been made by the men around them These questions all touch upon the experience of widows and on the ways women related to prevalent structures and ideologies in this society Lanza s study of these women the ways they were represented and how they experienced their widowhood challenges many historical assumptions about women and their roles with respect to the law the family and economic activity Studies in the Psychology of Sex Havelock Ellis,2018-09-21

Reproduction of the original Studies in the Psychology of Sex by Havelock Ellis The Person-Centred Approach Louise Embleton Tudor, Keemar Keemar, Keith Tudor, Joanna Valentine, Mike Worrall, 2004-03-08 In this essential text the highly regarded Temenos team present a new introduction to the person centred approach for the 21st century Giving a broad and unbiased account they illustrate how the approach has developed since the death of Carl Rogers and explore how the person centred philosophy can be an effective working model for both counselling and psychotherapy and for understanding living and working in a complex contemporary world The Person Centred Approach is essential reading for trainees whether new to counselling or more experienced and is a vital resource for practitioners wishing to keep at the forefront of the latest developments in the field The Awe of The Two Natures and Miracles of Christ Jesus Dr Ibim Alfred, 2023-01-26 The miracles of Christ Jesus are recorded by all the Four Gospel writers which are treated in accordance with arrangement of each writer in their respective books A careful reading and scrupulous examination in Matthew Mark Luke and John shows that the three categories of the miracles mentioned above are mixed up or rather placed or scattered haphazardly Please note this does not in any way constitute to contextual criticism The main task of this book is to re cast or re set these three types of miracles which are unsystematically or indiscriminately placed in the Four Gospels and to meticulously put them in an organised or methodically order or format Under the guidance of the Holy Spirit this had been achieved in this book and this is one of the strongest and positive advantages and strength which makes this book unique and special This makes it possible to read these amazing wonders with ease and without tears The Soldier's Reward Jennifer Ngaire Heuer, 2024-12-03 A sweeping history of intimacy and family life in France during the age of revolution The French Revolution and Napoleonic Wars devastated Europe for nearly a quarter of a century The Soldier s Reward recovers the stories of soldiers and their relationships to family and domestic life during this period revealing how prolonged warfare transformed family and gender dynamics and gave rise to new kinds of citizenship In this groundbreaking work combining social cultural gender and military history Jennifer Ngaire Heuer vividly describes how men fought for years with only fleeting moments of peace Combatants were promised promotion financial gain and patriotic glory They were also rewarded for their service by being allowed to return home to waiting families and love interests and with marriages that were arranged and financially supported by the state Heuer explores competing ideas of masculinity in France as well as the experiences of the men and women who participated in such marriages She argues that we cannot fully understand the changing nature of war and peace in this period without considering the important roles played by family gender and romantic entanglements Casting new light on a turbulent era of mass mobilization and seemingly endless conflict The Soldier s Reward shows how from the Revolution through the Restoration war intimacy and citizenship intersected in France in new and unexpected ways Eastern and Cross Cultural Management N. K. Singh, 2012-02-27 This path breaking book liberates management thinking from a century of Western subjugation It is a comparative exposition of culture and management styles in India Japan China and major Western countries There is a need to protect and sustain each country s identity and positive strengths in values while interlinking global business with cross cultural empathy The book explores profiles of culture management axis through secondary literature study in various languages of the East empirical research conducted with nearly one thousand managers and 375 organizations in India The effective management in the next millennium will be mission based strategic integration of the team combined with people sensitive approach In spite of growth of hi tech the emotional human issues will dominate the coming decades Happiness and health in institutions will largely depend on successive sacrifice of greed and possessiveness in creation of wealth for human development The meltdown in the US and its repercussions in the world are direct outcome of failure to learn these lessons Already the world is witnessing acute consciousness of interdependence and universal linkages This is the quintessence of Vedanta Zen Buddhism and Sufi order in the Eastern globe West dominated management technology must now synthesize with Eastern intuition and values The book is divided into three parts First part delves into East West psyche second part presents Integration Affection Model as potential approach to effective Management Third part shows the author s successful applications of the approach in different organizations while working as Chief Executive or Consultant The Australian Law Times ,1916
