The Making Of Southeast Asia:

The Making of Southeast Asia Amitav Acharya, 2013-02-22 Developing a framework to study what makes a region Amitav Acharya investigates the origins and evolution of Southeast Asian regionalism and international relations He views the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN from the bottom up as not only a U S inspired ally in the Cold War struggle against communism but also an organization that reflects indigenous traditions Although Acharya deploys the notion of imagined community to examine the changes especially since the Cold War in the significance of ASEAN dealings for a regional identity he insists that imagination is itself not a neutral but rather a culturally variable concept The regional imagination in Southeast Asia imagines a community of nations different from NAFTA or NATO the OAU or the European Union In this new edition of a book first published as The Quest for Identity in 2000 Acharya updates developments in the region through the first decade of the new century the aftermath of the financial crisis of 1997 security affairs after September 2001 the long term impact of the 2004 tsunami and the substantial changes wrought by the rise of China as a regional and global actor Acharya argues in this important book for the crucial importance of regionalism in a different part The Making of South East Asia George Cœdès, 1966 The Making of Southeast Asian Nations Leo Survadinata, 2015 The idea of the nation is a Western concept which has been applied to Southeast Asia It is a project which has been in progress since the last century but is still incomplete Various theoretical frameworks which are associated with nation and nation building in the Southeast Asian region have been briefly dealt with The book aims to examine the making of the nations in Southeast Asia using both historical and political science approaches Concepts related to nations such as ethnicity state indigenism and citizenship have also been analysed in the Southeast Asian context Specific examples of nation building in five major Southeast Asian countries are presented Problems and prospects of Southeast Asia s nation building and citizenship building in the era of globalisation are also discussed Making Of Southeast Asian Nations, The: State, Ethnicity, Indigenism And Citizenship Leo Survadinata, 2014-11-21 The idea of the nation is a Western concept which has been applied to Southeast Asia It is a project which has been in progress since the last century but is still incomplete Various theoretical frameworks which are associated with nation and nation building in the Southeast Asian region have been briefly dealt with The book aims to examine the making of the nations in Southeast Asia using both historical and political science approaches Concepts related to nation such as ethnicity state indigenism and citizenship have also been analysed in the Southeast Asian context Specific examples of nation building in five major Southeast Asian countries are presented Problems and prospects of Southeast Asia's nation building and citizenship building in the era of globalisation are also discussed The Making of South East Asia George Coedes, 1966 The Making of Southeast Asia George Coedès, George Coedès, 1983 The Making of South East Asia George Coedes, 1972 Civilizations in Embrace Amitav Acharya, 2013 This study revisits one of the most extensive examples of the spread of ideas in the history of civilization the diffusion of Indian religious and political ideas to Southeast Asia before the advent of Islam and European colonialism Hindu and Buddhist concepts and symbols of kingship and statecraft helped to legitimize Southeast Asian rulers and transform the political institutions and authority of Southeast Asia But the process of this diffusion was not accompanied by imperialism political hegemony or colonization as conventionally understood This book investigates different explanations of the spread of Indian ideas offered by scholars including why and how it occurred and what were its key political and institutional outcomes It challenges the view that strategic competition is a recurring phenomenon when civilizations The Making of South East Asia George Coedes, 1966 University of California Union Catalog of Monographs Cataloged by the Nine Campuses from 1963 Through 1967: Subjects University of California (System). Institute of Library Research, University of California, Berkeley, 1972 Traveling Nation Makers Caroline S. Hau, Kasīan Tēchaphīra, 2011 Cross border movements are often discussed as a high level abstraction but people cross borders as individuals Their lives are reshaped by the experience and in some cases they in turn reshape their own environment For the ten individuals whose biographies appear in this volume travel and its contingent and uneven processes of translation circulation and exchange helped forge patterns of political thought and action and defined their contribution to the process of nation making in Southeast Asia Mariano Ponce Pham Hong Thai Hilaire Noulens Vu Trong Phung Du Ai Lin Bin Ruam Wongphan James Puthucheary K Bali Connie Bragas Regalado and Imam Samudra each traveled within and beyond Southeast Asia The accounts in this book discuss how travel shaped their lives and careers and explain the transformative effects it had on the intellectual political and cultural trajectories of nationalism communism Islamism and other movements in the region The volume illuminates some of the pathways by which people in this region worked to realize their intellectual aesthetic and political visions and projects over the last tumultuous century The Historical Construction of Southeast Asian Studies Park Seung Woo, Victor T King, 2013-06-17 At a time when Southeast Asian Studies is declining in North America and Europe this book serves to remind us of the fresh constructive and encouraging view of the field from Asia On behalf of Taiwan's Southeast Asian research community I sincerely congratulate Professors Park and King for making such a great and timely contribution to the making of Southeast Asian Studies in Asia Hsin Huang Michael Hsiao Director of Institute of Sociology Academia Sinica and former President of Taiwan Association of Southeast Asian Studies The Historical Construction of Southeast Asian Studies Korea and Beyond is an important and long overdue step in the task of bringing Southeast Asian Studies to where it rightfully belongs the Asian region At the same time it avoids being narrowly regionalistic and instead views Southeast Asia as an open system that transcends national units or fixed territorial categories and welcomes the contributions of both Asian and non Asian scholars in crafting a fresh post colonial approach to the study of the region's societies and peoples Eduardo Climaco Tadem Professor of Asian Studies University of the Philippines Diliman An insightful and systemic analysis of the intriguing trajectories evolving themes and multi lingual scholarship of Southeast

Asian Studies in Asia and beyond this book serves as an important foundation in setting future research agendas as well as for closer global collaborations in knowledge production in Asian Studies Liu Hong Tan Kah Kee Professor and Chair School of Humanities and Social Sciences Nanyang Technological University Singapore Fluidity and Fixity in the Making of Southeast Asia Shaharil Talib, 2006 Between Declarations and Dreams: Art of Southeast Asia since the 19th Century Low Sze Wee, 2015-11-30 Years in the making Between Declarations and Dreams is National Gallery Singapore's inaugural exhibition of the art of Southeast Asia from the 19th century to the present This handsome catalogue tracks the broad time periods and thematic sections of the exhibition with more than 300 artwork images. These are accompanied by essays that provide curatorial insight to a task as monumental and intricate as the positing an art history of a region as diverse as Southeast Asia The Making of South East Asia George Coedes, 2015 From the time of its original publication in France this cultural history first published in English in 1966 by an international authority has stood apart from other histories of South East Asia Most such accounts describe events before 1500 in summary fashion and concentrate on later developments This book on the contrary deals mainly with the earlier formative epochs that marked the flowering in the region of the Great Traditions of Hinduism and of Buddhism Following a succinct sketch of the prehistoric period the book moves on to a chronological account of the developments from the Chinese conquest of Annam in the third century to the period of European conquest in the nineteenth It reflects the author's thoughtful views concerning the evolution of political institutions religions literatures and arts that distinguished the region In geographical scope it embraces Thailand Burma and the area formerly known as French Indochina and is an indispensable guide to the making of the region Southeast Asian Development Andrew McGregor, 2008-03-03 Southeast Asia has long fascinated development practitioners and researchers for being one of the few regions of the world that has resisted global trends to become a successful developing region Divided into accessible thematic chapters this book adopts a unique perspective of equitable development to outline the strengths and weaknesses of the transformations taking place in the Southeast Asian region Focusing on four key themes equality and inequality political freedom and opportunity empowerment and participation and environmental sustainability these concepts are used to explore Southeast Asian development and trace the impacts that the growing popularity of market led and grassroots approaches are having upon economic political and social processes Whilst the diversity of the region is emphasized so are some of the homogenizing trends such as the concentration of wealth and services in urban areas and the subsequent migration of rural people into urban factories and squatter settlements The ongoing commercialization and industrialization of rural agriculture as well as the expansion of non farm income earning opportunities in rural spaces and the alarming rates of environmental degradation which threaten health and livelihoods are also exposed In highlighting how Southeast Asian development is unevenly distributing wealth opportunities and risks throughout the region this book emphasizes the need for creative new approaches to ensure that benefits of development are equitably enjoyed by all
