The Making Of The Independent:

America and the Making of an Independent Ireland Francis M. Carroll, 2021-01-05 Examines how the Irish American community the American public and the American government played a crucial role in the making of a sovereign independent Ireland On Easter Day 1916 more than a thousand Irishmen stormed Dublin city center seizing the General Post Office building and reading the Proclamation for an independent Irish Republic The British declared martial law shortly afterward and the rebellion was violently quashed by the military In a ten day period after the event fourteen leaders of the uprising were executed by firing squad In New York news of the uprising spread quickly among the substantial Irish American population Initially the media blamed German interference but eventually news of British propagated atrocities came to light and Irish Americans were quick to respond America and the Making of an Independent Ireland centres on the diplomatic relationship between Ireland and the United States at the time of Irish Independence and World War I Beginning with the Rising of 1916 Francis M Carroll chronicles how Irish Americans responded to the movement for Irish independence and pressuring the US government to intervene on the side of Ireland Carroll s in depth analysis demonstrates that Irish Americans after World War I raised funds for the D il ireann government and for war relief while shaping public opinion in favor of an independent nation The book illustrates how the US government was the first power to extend diplomatic recognition to Ireland and welcome it into the international community Overall Carroll argues that the existence of the state of Ireland is owed to considerable effort and intervention by Irish Americans and the American public at large The Making of Modern Agriculture in Independent India Madhumita Saha, 2025-09-12 This book provides a comprehensive historical account of agricultural development in independent India It studies concerns regarding food shortages in the years immediately after independence covers the debates over the introduction of Green Revolution technology and examines the knowledge network that facilitated the introduction of new seeds The book presents a critical examination of agricultural modernisation its technoscientific practices manpower and institutions and provides deeper insights into how it shaped the rural economy the relationships it maintained with agricultural sciences and the extensive control it sought to exert over the environment It examines multiple facets of food crop research from sites of knowledge production transnational knowledge networks and the evolution of the research community to the challenges faced by Indian agricultural scientists An important contribution this book will be an essential read for scholars and researchers of South Asian Studies agriculture food security historians of science and technology environmental studies developmental studies agrarian studies modern Indian history and the Cold War The Independent, 1916 Half-hours with American History: Independent America Charles Morris, 1887 Contribution Limitations and Independent Expenditures United States. Crisis Just when the world thought that with the Fall of the Berlin Wall Marxism would die and be buried the Great Crisis of the first decade of the 21st century has triggered a renewed interest in Marxism This book looks at Marx s seminal work Capital A Critique of Political Economy from an energy perspective By combining the thoughts of this great thinker with those of scholars on energy both past and present this book serves to enhance the scientific thought of Marx by using energy as a conceptual and analytical tool With the capitalist economy taking repeated beatings since 2008 mainstream economic science is also under critical scrutiny for the unpredictable manner in which it has thus far analysed the global capitalist system The invisible hand and self interest theses of Adam Smith and his adherents are proving to be unworthy of their 250 year ideological grip on mankind and the natural environment The 500 year old capitalist system itself is showing signs of wear and tear and so are its sciences that have thus far attempted to analyse it if not uphold it With the growing acknowledgement of energy as a central entity in all of aspects of life disciplines such as economics are giving rise to interdisciplinary sciences such as econophysics and sociology may see a revival of its founding discipline sociophysics All disciplines it seems will have to incorporate energy as a field of study in their curricula Marx s thoughts in Capital are an amalgamation of science philosophy history sociology political economy and anthropology among others Capital An Energy Perspective provides a fresh look at the physical workings of the capitalist economy by using Marx s Capital as a framework of interpretation and analysis

The Internet and New Social Formation in China Weiyu Zhang,2016-03-22 There are billions of internet users in China and this number is continually growing This book looks at the various purposes of this internet use and provides a study about how the entertainment consuming users form into publics through the mediation of technologies in the era of network society It questions how individuals mediated by new information and communication technologies come together to form new social categories The book goes on to investigate how public s is formed in the era of network society with particular focus on how fans become publics in a society that follows the logic of network Using online surveys and in depth interviews this book provides a rich description of the process of constructing a new social formation in contemporary China
