Africa is in a Mess Godfrey Mwakikagile, 2006 This is a revised and updated edition in which the author examines the problems of post colonial Africa He contends that the problems have existed since independence in the sixties and have been made worse through the years by a combination of factors It is a blunt assessment and prescribes some solutions to Africa s problems focusing on internal factors but without exonerating external forces from what has happened on the continent through the decades

European-language Writing in Sub-Saharan Africa Albert S. Gérard, 1986 The first major comparative study of African writing in western languages European language Writing in Sub Saharan Africa edited by Albert S G rard falls into four wide ranging sections an overview of early contacts and colonial developments Under Western Eyes chapters on Black Consciousness manifest in the debates over Panafricanism and Negritude a group of essays on mental decolonization expressed in Black Power texts at the time of independence struggles and finally Comparative Vistas sketching directions that future comparative study might explore An introductory e

My Journey Is My Life Nwaoha Ugochukwu C., 2019-04-23 My Journey Is My Life Living to Fulfill a Purpose tells the inspiring story of author Nwaoha Ugochukwu C who grew up in a remote village in Nigeria In his own words My Journey Is My Life is based on a true life story and my life experiences in general It was written to teach others that the things that cost no pain provide lesser gains while things that cost more pain provide larger gains Where there has been little sweat there will be little sweet The experiences and activities in my life s journey if not for God s intervention were beyond what words could explain cruel and nearly unimaginable Frankly throughout this period what life gave me was more than terrible and frightening pictures so I thought the only thing remaining for me to do was depart from this world But I refused to die like a coward who dies more than ten times before his death Seeing what this life was all about it must be believed that it was by the will of God that I was saved And to give God all the glory I will employ the word of God from the Bible as I describe my survival efforts For they got not the land in possession by their own sword neither did their own arm save them but thy right hand and thine arm and the light of thy countenance because thou hadst a favor unto them Psalm 44 3 In the journey of life when fear is set aside greatness can be achieved in adversity

Esu-Elegba's Crossroads Eric Mayer-García, Solimar Otero, 2025-04-25 This book features a collection of essays and testimonials that provide new perspectives and incisive criticism on the writings and theatrical productions of Nigerian American author director and theorist Femi Euba Esu the Yoruba trickster deity of the crossroads brings cohesion to this project and serves as a guiding principle for its contributors who draw upon Esu's mysteries to illuminate distinctive characteristics of Euba's oeuvre As a key figure of Wole Soyinka's circle Euba's literature theory research and artistic practice deeply engage with the works of Soyinka The contributions to this volume uncover multiple connections between these two artists and break ground in scholarship by considering their works together through comparative analysis The voices of leading and emerging scholars bring together African Drama Comparative Literature and Theatre History in an interdisciplinary discourse on Euba which greatly complements his vast achievements Chapters delve into Euba's cultural theory informed by Esu particularly his theory of satire and offer insight into many of his creative works including Camwood at Crossroads Tortoise The Gulf and The Eye of Gabriel The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Atlantic Studies
