Self-Portrait with Russian Piano Wolf Wondratschek, 2025-09-23 A legendary literary figure who initiated a one man Beat Generation in his native Germany Wolf Wondratschek is eccentric monomaniacal romantic his texts are imbued with a wonderful reckless nonchalance Now he tells a story of a man looking back on his life in an honest Portrait of the Artist as an Old Man Vienna is an uncanny magical and sometimes brutally alienating city The past lives on in the cafes where lost souls come to kill time and hash over the bygone glories of the twentieth century or maybe just a recent love affair

Here in one of these cafes an anonymous narrator meets a strange character like someone out of a novel a decrepit old Russian named Suvorin A Soviet pianist of international renown Suvorin committed career suicide when he developed a violent distaste for the sound of applause This eccentric gentleman sometimes charming sometimes sulky sometimes disconcertingly frank knows the end of his life is approaching and allows himself to be convinced to tell his life story Over a series of coffee dates punctuated by confessions anecdotes and rages and by the narrator s schemes to keep his quarry talking a strained friendship develops between the two men and it soon becomes difficult to tell who is more dependent on whom Rhapsodic and melancholic with shades of Vladimir Nabokov W G Sebald Hans Keilson and Thomas Bernhard Wolf Wondratschek s Self Portrait with Russian Piano is a literary sonata circling the eternal question of whether beauty music and passion are worth the sacrifices some people are compelled to make for them A romantic in a madhouse To let Wondratschek s voice be drowned in the babble of today s literature would be a colossal mistake Patrick S skind international bestselling author of Perfume The Story of a Murderer
