The Market Panacea Agrarian Transformation In Developing Countries And Former Socialist Economies:

The 'market Panacea' Max Spoor, 1997 Comprises 10 articles Looks at similarities between structural adjustment programmes in developing countries and market transition strategies in transitional countries Analyses the outcomes of agrarian transformation processes brought about by State withdrawal deregulation privatization and market liberalization

Agricultural Markets Beyond Liberalization Aad van Tilburg, Henk A.J. Moll, A. Kuyvenhoven, 2012-12-06 Agricultural markets have entered a long term process of liberalization with the aim of reducing imposed market imperfections such as monopolistic public trade entry barriers and subsidies The experience of more than a decade of agriculture liberalization offers a good opportunity to review and analyze the outcome of this process and to draw lessons for the future The central topic in Agricultural Markets Beyond Liberalization is the relationship between market structure and how markets perform in a dynamic context during a liberalization process The topic is studied from both a micro and macro viewpoint and refers to different types of agricultural markets This volume brings together the dynamics of agricultural markets in several parts of the world with a special focus on transition economics and Africa The different studies cover geographical areas as wide as a district as well as a group of countries and institutions from individual contracts to multi national organizations The analysis of liberalization under different circumstances and the different methods of analysis used by the authors provide a valuable foundation for the assessment of liberalization

The Political Economy of Rural Livelihoods in Transition Economies Max Spoor, 2009 These chapters reflect the striking differences between transition countries in their processes of rural reform and development of rural poverty

From Community to Consumption Alessandro Bonanno, Hans Baker, Raymond
