Jumpman Johnny Smith, 2023-11-07 How Michael Jordan's path to greatness was shaped by race politics and the consequences of fame To become the most revered basketball player in America it wasn't enough for Michael Jordan to merely excel on the court He also had to become something he never intended a hero Reconstructing the defining moment of Jordan's career winning his first NBA championship during the 1990 1991 season sports historian Johnny Smith examines Jordan s ubiquitous rise in American culture and the burden he carried as a national symbol of racial progress Jumpman reveals how Jordan maintained a mystique that allowed him to seem more likable to Americans who wanted to believe race no longer mattered In the process of achieving greatness he remade himself into a paradox universally known yet distant and unknowable Blending dramatic game action with grand evocations of the social forces sweeping the early nineties Jumpman demonstrates how the man and the myth together created the legend we remember today     Syndicated Television Hal Erickson,2024-10-09 Here is an excellent reference book on first run syndication the distribution of programs either made exclusively for non network play or of programs intended for network telecasts but ultimately making their debuts in syndication Bringing together information not easily found this work covers the classics such as Sea Hunt Highway Patrol The Merv Griffin Show and the Muppet Show as well as such once popular but now obscure productions as China Smith Ripcord and The Littlest Hobo Coverage goes back to 1947 and the book includes a number of series ignored in other works The first section is an overview of the concept of syndication from its earliest application in the newspaper world to the attempt by Fox Television to become a fourth network The next four sections each cover ten years of syndication listing the shows with full background who produced them and why who liked them and why etc alphabetically by title under the following genres Adventure Mystery Children s Comedy Drama Game Quiz Informational Music Variety Religious Sports Talk Interview Travel Documentary Westerns and Women s
