Snapshots of the Soul Molly Thomasy Blasing, 2021-07-15 Snapshots of the Soul considers how photography has shaped Russian poetry from the early twentieth century to the present day Drawing on theories of the lyric and the elegy the social history of technology and little known archival materials Molly Thomasy Blasing offers close readings of poems by Boris Pasternak Marina Tsvetaeva Joseph Brodsky and Bella Akhmadulina as well as by the late and post Soviet poets Andrei Sen Sen kov Arkadii Dragomoshchenko and Kirill Medvedev to understand their fascination with the visual language representational power and metaphorical possibilities offered by the camera and the photographic image Within the context of long standing anxieties about the threat that visual media pose to literary culture Blasing finds that these poets were attracted to the affinities and tensions that exist between the lyric or elegy and the snapshot Snapshots of the Soul reveals that at the core of each poet's approach to writing the photograph is the urge to demonstrate the superior ability of poetic language to capture and convey human experience Open Access edition funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities

Practices of Projection Gabriel Menotti, Virginia Crisp, 2020-02-05 To many the technological aspects of projection often go unnoticed only brought to attention during moments of crisis or malfunction For example when a movie theater projector falters the audience suddenly looks toward the back of the theater to see a sign of mechanical failure The history of cinema similarly shows that the attention to projection has been most focused when the whole medium is hanging in suspension During Hollywood's economic consolidation in the 30s projection defined the ways that sync sound technologies could be deployed within the medium Most recently the digitization of cinema repeated this process as technology was reworked to facilitate mobility These examples show how projection continually speaks to the rearrangement of media technology Projection therefore needs to be examined as a pivotal element in the future of visual media's technological transition In Practices of Projection Histories and Technologies volume editors Gabriel Menotti and Virginia Crisp address the cultural and technological significance of projection Throughout the volume chapters reiterate that projection cannot and must not be reduced to its cinematic functions alone Borrowing media theorist Siegfried Zielinski's definition Menotti and Crisp refer to projection as the heterogeneous array of artefacts technical systems and particularly visual praxes of experimentation and of culture From this readers can understand the performative character of the moving image and the labor of the different actors involved in the utterance of the film text Projection is not the same everywhere nor equal all the time Its systems are in permanent interaction with environmental circumstances neighboring structures local cultures and social economies Thus the idea of projection as a universal fully autonomous operation cannot hold Each occurrence of projection adds nuance to a wider understanding of film screening technologies

Titles, 1991 One Toss of the Dice: The Incredible Story of How a Poem Made Us Modern R. Howard Bloch, 2016-11-08 In the tradition of The Swerve comes this thrilling detective like work of literary history that reveals how a poem created the world we live in today It was improbably the forerunner of our digital age a French poem about a shipwreck published in 1897 that with its mind bending possibilities of being read up and down backward and forward even sideways launched modernism Stéphane Mallarmé's One Toss of the Dice a daring twenty page epic of ruin and recovery provided an epochal tipping point defining the spirit of the age and anticipating radical thinkers of the twentieth century from Albert Einstein to T S Eliot Celebrating its intrinsic influence on our culture renowned scholar R Howard Bloch masterfully decodes the poem still considered among the most enigmatic ever written In Bloch's shimmering portrait of Belle époque Paris Mallarmé stands as the spiritual giant of the era gathering around him every Tuesday a luminous cast of characters including Émile Zola Victor Hugo Claude Monet André Gide Claude Debussy Oscar Wilde and even the future French prime minister Georges Clemenceau A simple schoolteacher whose salons and prodigious literary talent won him the adoration of Paris's elite Mallarmé achieved the reputation of France's greatest living poet He was so beloved that mourners crowded along the Seine for his funeral in 1898 many refusing to depart until late into the night leaving Auguste Renoir to ponder How long will it take for nature to make another such a mind Over a century later the allure of Mallarmé's linguistic feat continues to ignite the imaginations of the world's greatest thinkers Featuring a new authoritative translation of the French poem by J D McClatchy One Toss of the Dice reveals how a literary masterpiece launched the modernist movement contributed to the rise of pop art influenced modern Web design and shaped the perceptual world we now inhabit And as Alex Ross remarks in The New Yorker If you can crack Mallarmé's poems it seems you can crack the riddles of existence In One Toss of the Dice Bloch finally and brilliantly dissects one of literary history's greatest mysteries to reveal how a poem made us modern Monstrous adaptations Richard Hand, Jay McRoy, 2017-06-01 The fifteen groundbreaking essays contained in this book address the concept of adaptation in relation to horror cinema. Adaptation is not only a key cultural practice and strategy for filmmakers but it is also a theme of major importance within horror cinema as a whole. The history of the genre is full of adaptations that have drawn from fiction or folklore or that have assumed the shape of remakes of pre-existing films. The horror genre itself also abounds with its own myriad transformations and transmutations. The essays within this volume engage with an impressive range of horror texts from the earliest silent horror films by Thomas Edison and Jean Epstein through to important contemporary phenomena such as the western appropriation of Japanese horror motifs. Classic works by Alfred Hitchcock, David Cronenberg and Abel Ferrara receive cutting edge re-examination as do unjustly neglected works by Mario Bava, Guillermo del Toro and Stan Brakhage.

The Handbook of Motion Picture Photography Herbert Couchman McKay, 1927 Photographica, 1977 Experiència màgica del cinema, L'. Col·lecció Josep Queraltó Universitat de Barcelona, Fundació Aula de Cinema Col·lecció Josep M. Queraltó, 2013-10-15

La Col·lecció Josep M. Queraltó una de les més importants d'Europa sobre la tècnica cinematogràfica reuneix innumerable peces i enginyos de tota mena avui insospitats que van fer possible l'origen i l'evolució del set art. La seva història el seu relat és apassionant. Aquest catàleg que publiquem amb motiu de la mostra L'experiència màgica del cinema celebrada a la Universitat de Barcelona submergeix el lector en l'univers fascinant del cinema i n'explica la història des de les primeres al·lors fins a l'aparició del cinematògraf dels germans Lumière així com els seus vincles amb les ciències i l'art. Les ombres xineses les llanternes les kinòres les joguines òptiques i tants d'altres artefactes avui desconeguts són la materialització de l'anhel reeixit de la humanitat de captar i reproduir la realitat o més aviat l'experiència fugissera que en tenim. Els textos de Josep Maria Caparrós i Jordi S. Bonet contextualitzen i expliquen amb amenitat l'abast d'aquests objectes primigenis que han evolucionat en paral·lel a la història d'una disciplina tan universal i estimada com ho és el cinema. Sens dubte una de les millors maneres d'endinsar-nos en la màgia dels orígens que encara avui conservem.

The Josep M. Queraltó Collection one of the most important in Europe on the Technology of the cinema includes countless pieces and all kinds of devices now forgotten that made the origins and the development of the Seventh Art possible. Its history the story it tells is exciting. This catalogue published for the show The Magical Experience of the Cinema held in the University of Barcelona immerses readers in the fascinating world of the cinema and tells its story from the earliest days to the appearance of the Lumière brothers cinematographe and its connections with the sciences and art. Chinese shadows lanterns Kinoras optical toys and so many other artefacts now unknown are the materialization of mankind's successful longing to capture and reproduce reality or rather the fleeting experience that we have of it. The texts by Josep Maria Caparrós and Jordi S. Bonet pleasantly contextualize and explain the scope of these rudimentary objects which have developed parallel to the history of such a universal and well-loved discipline the cinema. It is unquestionably one of the best ways to learn about the magic of the origins which we still conserve today.
