The collection includes Nichiren's five major works as well as other treatises setting forth his doctrine, writings remonstrating with government officials and letters offering advice, encouragement or consolation to believers. Edited by the Soka Gakkai's Gosho Translation Committee, these are the translations used by English-speaking Soka Gakkai members the world over. Chanting in the Hillsides Jeaneane D. Fowler, Merv Fowler, 2009 In 1983 a tiny group of people in Cardiff and a married couple in Aberporth, West Wales, were the only Welsh members of Soka Gakkai International, a Japanese movement based on the beliefs and teachings of the 13th-century Buddhist Nichiren Daishonin. Today there are hundreds of members in Wales and the Borders. This book examines the history of the movement in these two areas and draws on original research gleaned from the members themselves. The research elicits facets of their faith, practices and study as well as their testimonies to the success of such beliefs and practices in their daily lives. The book combines the twin goals of academic analysis of the Buddhism of Nichiren Daishonin in general with the warmth of its expression in the lives of its adherents in Wales and the Borders.
