Veyu, 2012-12-19 The Making of the Modern Artist Stephen Dedalus and Will Brangwen examines two fictional artists by James Joyce and D H Lawrence in A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man and D H Lawrence s The Rainbow respectively It brings together Joyce and Lawrence in their common concern with the modern artist and modern art Taking the two major artist characters of the two works this study establishes that Joyce and Lawrence irrespective of major background educational artistic and philosophical differences converge on the person character artistic vision and working methods of the modern artist This study makes little effort at looking at these fictional artists as alter egos of Joyce and Lawrence it treats them as modern artists in their own right It attempts to give them somewhat a critical right of existence of their own The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books to 1975 British Library (London), Jim Emmett, 1981 Lincolnshire History and Archaeology , 1975 The Industrial Revolution , 1985 Anglo-Chinese Encounters Before the Opium War Xin Liu, 2022-08-12 Anglo Chinese Encounters Before the Opium War A Tale of Two Empires Over Two Centuries studies the fascinating encounters between the two historic empires from Queen Elizabeth I s first letter to the Ming Emperor Wanli in 1583 to Lord Palmerston s letter to the Minister of China in 1840 Starting with Queen Elizabeth I s letter to the Chinese Emperor and ending with the letter from Lord Palmerston to the Minister of China just before the Opium War this book explores the long journey in between from cultural diplomacy to gunboat diplomacy It interweaves the most known diplomatic efforts at the official level with the much unknown intellectual interactions at the people to people level from missionaries to scholars from merchants to travelers and from artists to scientists This book adopts a novel mirror approach by pairing and comparing people texts commodities artworks architecture ideologies operating systems and world views of the two empires Using letters gifts and traded goods as fulcrums and by adopting these unique lenses it puts China into the world history narratives to contextualise Anglo Chinese relations thus providing a fresh analysis of the surviving evidence Xin Liu casts a new light on understanding the Sino centric and Anglo centric world views in driving the complex relations between the two empires and the reversals of power shifts that are still unfolding today The book is not intended for specialists in history but a general audience wishing to learn more about China s historical engagement with the world Consumption and Culture in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries John Brewer, 1991 British Book News British Council, 1993 Includes no 53a British wartime books for young people Encyclopedia of Renaissance Philosophy Marco Sgarbi, 2022-10-27 Gives accurate and reliable summaries of the current state of research It includes entries on philosophers problems terms historical periods subjects and the cultural context of Renaissance Philosophy Furthermore it covers Latin Arabic Jewish Byzantine and vernacular philosophy and includes entries on the cross fertilization of these philosophical traditions A unique feature of this encyclopedia is that it does not aim to define what Renaissance philosophy is rather simply to cover the philosophy of the period between 1300 and 1650

Embodied Experiences of Making in Early Modern Europe Sarah A. Bendall, Serena Dyer, 2025-10-01 Processes of making in early modern Europe were both tacit and embodied Whether making pottery food or textiles the processes of manual production rested on an intersensory connection between mind body and object This volume focuses on the body of the maker to ask how processes of making experimenting experiencing and reconstructing illuminate early modern assumptions and understandings around manual labour and material life Answers can be gleaned through both recapturing past skills and knowledge of making and by reconstructing past bodies and bodily experiences using recreative and experimental approaches In drawing attention to the body this collection underlines the importance of embodied knowledge and sensory experiences associated with the making practices of historically marginalised groups such as craftspeople women domestic servants and those who were colonised to confront biases in the written archive The history of making is found not only in technological and economic innovations which drove progress but also in the hands minds and creations of makers themselves First interdisciplinary collection of essays to Synthesise experimental history approaches used to investigate a wide range of objects dress cosmetics cooking and art and their makers or wearers in the early modern period Demonstrate how attention to objects and making in both historical and modern experimental contexts can uncover knowledge of embodied and gendered experiences that are otherwise difficult to access Contributes to the recently termed making and embodied turns in history Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1976 The Making of Consumer Culture in Modern Britain Peter Gurney,2017-05-18 CHOICE OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC TITLE AWARD WINNER 2018 It is commonly accepted that the consumer is now centre stage in modern Britain rather than the worker or producer Consumer choice is widely regarded as the major source of self definition and identity rather than productive activity Politicians vie with each other to fashion their appeal to citizen consumers When and how did these profound changes occur Which historical alternatives were pushed to the margins in the process In what ways did the everyday consumer practices and forms of consumer organising adopted by both middle and working class men and women shape the outcomes This study of the making of consumer culture in Britain since 1800 explores these questions introduces students to major debates and cuts a distinctive path through this vibrant field It suggests that the consumer culture that emerged during this period was shaped as much by political relationships as it was by economic and social factors The Cumulative Book Index ,1974 Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress,1974-07 Beginning with 1953 entries for Motion pictures and filmstrips Music and phonorecords form separate parts of the Library of Congress catalogue Entries for Maps and atlases were issued separately 1953 1955
