Moses Montefiore Abigail Green,2012-05-07

Humanitarian philanthropist and campaigner for Jewish emancipation on a grand scale Sir Moses Montefiore 1784 1885 was the preeminent Jewish figure of the nineteenth century and one of the first truly global celebrities His story told here in full for the first time is a remarkable and illuminating tale of diplomacy and adventure Abigail Green s sweeping biography follows Montefiore through the realms of court and ghetto tsar and sultan synagogue and stock exchange Interweaving the public triumph of Montefiore s foreign missions with the private tragedy of his childless marriage this book brings the diversity of nineteenth century Jewry brilliantly to life from London to Jerusalem Rome to St Petersburg Morocco to Istanbul Here we see the origins of Zionism and the rise of international Jewish consciousness the faltering birth of international human rights and the making of the modern Middle East With the globalization and mobilization of religious identities now at the top of the political agenda Montefiore s life story is relevant as never before Mining materials from eleven countries in nine languages Green s masterly biography bridges the East West divide in modern Jewish history presenting the transformation of Jewish life in Europe the Middle East and the New World as part of a single global phenomenon As it

reestablishes Montefiore's status as a major historical player it also restores a significant chapter to the history of our modern world History of the Ottoman Empire and Modern Turkey: Reform, revolution, and republic: the rise of modern Turkey, 1808-1975 Stanford Jay Shaw, Ezel Kural Shaw, 1976 List of tables Preface Preface to the second printing List of abbreviations Note on pronunciation Map of the growth of the Ottoman Empire 1280 1683 Map of the decline of the Ottoman Empire 1683 1975 1 The beginnings of modern Ottoman reform the era of Mahmut II 1808 1839 2 The era of modern reform the Tanzimat 1839 1876 3 Culmination of the Tanzimat the reign of Abdulhamit II 1876 1909 4 The Young Turk period 1908 1918 5 The Turkish war for independence 1918 1923 6 The Turkish Republic 1923 1975 Appendix Bibliography Index

Annual Report of the Chairman - Social Science Research Council Social Science Research Council (U.S.), 1927 The Second Empire and the Press N. Isser, 2012-12-06 Public opinion had roots in the nineteenth century with the development of industrialization What is this public It is the mass of individuals who comprise a society or a nation this mass in turn is divided into many groups which have their own interests prejudices and beliefs A government whether democratic or not is well aware of the power of public opinion and is anxious to measure and shape it All three branches of government may direct and educate public thinking using the instruments of propaganda Propaganda is any idea and action designed to influence the views and actions of others Today's means of propaganda are books newspapers radio movies television public schools and lastly the rostrum Molders of opinion believe that words sounds and pictures accomplish little unless they are carefully organized and integrated into a well conceived plan Once this is accomplished the ideas conveyed by the words will become part of the people themselves Special techniques such as the employment of fear and the play on prejudices have been used quite successfully by modern states to impose their own dogmas and policies Because the social scientist has been aware of the study of public opinion he may have concluded that it was a modern innovation but governments have always been concerned with public opinion though not always understanding it and have attempted to influence it Bulletin of the British Library of Political and Economic Science British Library of Political and Economic Science, 1926 The Balkans in International Relations Branimir M Jankovic, Bosko Milosavljevic, 1988-04-06 Diplomacy in an Age of Nationalism N.N. Barker, M.L. Brown, 2012-12-06 In the late nineteenth and early twentieth century international relations took on new and frightening aspects A resurgent nationalism sharpened the conflicts between states while an increasing industrialism afforded them the means to make war on a scale previously unimaginable Never before had there been greater need for art and skill in the conduct of international negotiations The statesmen in charge of this intercourse often fell far short of the ideal necessary to eliminate the tensions in international relations They not only had to deal with problems of great complexity but they varied greatly in their temperaments in their abilities and even in their inclinations to accommodate themselves to a solution Nevertheless traditional diplomacy made possible the orderly handling of international crises and kept open the lines of communication With all its imperfections it contributed largely to the maintenance of the European order from the turbulent mid century through La Belle Epoque The colleagues and former students of Professor Case represented here share with him his interest in this aspect of history They analyse the methods of diplomats and the policies they implemented in articles ranging from empires in Africa and Mexico to Turkey and the Eastern Question But regardless of the diversity of the subjects treated they are never separated from the mainstream of the diplomatic policies of the great powers Moreover the articles represent the same approach to history and the same techniques employed by Professor Case Annual Report - Social Science Research Council Social Science Research Council (U.S.),1927

History of the Balkans: Volume 1 Barbara Jelavich,1983-07-29 Volume I discusses the history of the major Balkan nationalities It describes the differing conditions experienced under Ottoman and Habsburg rule but the main emphasis is on the national movements their successes and failures to 1900 and the place of events in the Balkans in the international relations of the day Orthodox Christianity and Nationalism in Nineteenth-Century Southeastern Europe Lucian N. Leustean,2014-07-02 Nation building processes in the Orthodox commonwealth brought together political institutions and religious communities in their shared aims of achieving national sovereignty Chronicling how the churches of Greece Romania Bulgaria and Serbia acquired independence from the Patriarchate of Constantinople in the wake of the Ottoman Empire s decline Orthodox Christianity and Nationalism in Nineteenth Century Southeastern Europe examines the role of Orthodox churches in the construction of national identities Drawing on archival material available after the fall of communism in southeastern Europe and Russia as well as material published in Greek Serbian Bulgarian Romanian and Russian Orthodox Christianity and Nationalism in Nineteenth Century Southeastern Europe analyzes the challenges posed by nationalism to the Ecumenical Patriarchate and the ways in which Orthodox churches engaged in the nationalist ideology a History of the Modern World R.R. Palmer, Joel Colton,1965 The Gypsies of Eastern Europe David Crowe,John Kolsti,Ian Hancock,2016-07-22 In recent news coverage of the dramatic political events in Eastern Europe Gypsies have been a favourite sidebar topic Some of the stories have been truly horrifying others are written condescendingly and to amuse but what has become clear is how little we really know about this people In a concerted effort to uncover the modern history of the Rom in Eastern Europe the authors examine the Gypsy experience in Albania Czechoslovakia Hungary Romania and Yugoslavia with special attention to the Nazi Holocaust as well as to the record of the forced settlement and education programmes instituted by communist regimes The Balkans D. Hupchick,2002-01-11 The tragedies of Bosnia and Kosovo are often explained away as the unchangeable legacy of centuries old hatreds In this richly detailed expertly balanced chronicle of the Balkans across fifteen centuries Hupchick sets a complicated record straight Organized around the three great civilizations of the region Western European Orthodox Christian and Muslim this is a much needed guide to the political social cultural and religious threads of Balkan history with a clear convincing account of the reasons for nationalist violence and terror Peoples and International Law James Summers,2014-04-09 Peoples and International Law is a detailed survey of the law of self determination with a focus on the concept of nations and peoples It engages with different aspects of this law with particular emphasis on the drafting and implementation of international instruments The second edition includes new coverage of the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples and the African and Arab charters It considers recent practice by the Human Rights Committee Committee on Economic Social and Cultural Rights and African Commission on Human and Peoples Rights dealing with the emerging political economic and environmental aspects of the right The book looks at the interaction of international law nationalism and liberalism in theories of nationhood and self determination as well as the historical development of the right and the decisions of international bodies Lastly it examines practice in this area including new developments in remedial independence and international territorial administration Also available in hardback
