The Making of the President, 1960 Theodore Harold White, 1961 More than a year before the election of John F Kennedy Theodore H White began to explore the secret planning and private aspirations of seven men each of whom in his own way found his dreams tormented by the power that might be his in the White House By spring White had begun to follow the candidates through the early jousting of the primaries Continuing through the conventions the campaigns and the final drama of election night he fashioned a work of contemporary history that highlights the decisions the acts the accidents that created an American President and also the cold political realities of a country upon whose decision the world of freedom waits At once a political study of power in America and a chronicle of individual Americans caught in the act of leadership it was a story no other writer attempted to tell before Adapted from book jacket The Making of the President, 1964 Joseph Altman, 1965 The Making of the President 1964 Theodore H.
