Pictures of Romance Wendy Steiner, 1988 Wendy Steiner reveals an intricate exchange between the visual arts and the literary romance The Half-vanished Structure Magnus Ullén, 2004 This book takes issue with the tendency in twentieth century Hawthorne criticism to blur the distinction between symbolism and allegory Rejecting the long standing notion that Hawthorne is a symbolist in allegorical disguise Ullén argues that allegory is the key to understanding how religion sexuality aesthetics and politics are interwoven in Hawthorne's writings The study presents a model for allegorical interpretation of general applicability which is brought to bear on each of Hawthorne's mature romances and on the oft neglected Wonder Books written for children An unparalleled analysis of the formal intricacies of Hawthorne's writings this book is an eloquent plea for the necessity of grounding ideological analysis in aesthetical considerations Hawthorne and the Real Millicent Bell, 2005 Hawthorne was with his own complicity long described as a writer of unreal romances as he preferred to call his novels or allegories of the heart as he termed some of his short stories The essays in this collection contribute to the turn in recent Hawthorne criticism which shows how deeply implicated in realism his writing was

BOOK JACKET      The Poetics and Politics of the American Gothic Agnieszka Soltysik Monnet, 2016-12-05 Taking as its point of departure recent insights about the performative nature of genre The Poetics and Politics of the American Gothic challenges the critical tendency to accept at face value that gothic literature is mainly about fear Instead Agnieszka Soltysik Monnet argues that the American Gothic and gothic literature in general is also about judgment how to judge and what happens when judgment is confronted with situations that defy its limits Poe Hawthorne Melville Gilman and James all shared a concern with the political and ideological debates of their time but tended to approach these debates indirectly Thus Monnet suggests while slavery and race are not the explicit subject matter of antebellum works by Poe and Hawthorne they nevertheless permeate it through suggestive analogies and tacit references Similarly Melville Gilman and James use the gothic to explore the categories of gender and sexuality that were being renegotiated during the latter half of the century Focusing on The Fall of the House of Usher The Marble Faun Pierre The Turn of the Screw and The Yellow Wallpaper Monnet brings to bear minor texts by the same authors that further enrich her innovative readings of these canonical works At the same time her study persuasively argues that the Gothic's endurance and ubiquity are in large part related to its being uniquely adapted to rehearse questions about judgment and justice that continue to fascinate and disturb

The Book of Esther and the Typology of Female Transfiguration in American Literature Ariel Clark Silver, 2017-11-30 The enduring search for female salvation in American literature is first expressed through typology an interpretive framework that pairs type with antitype historical scriptural promise with future spiritual fulfillment When Cotton Mather invokes the typos of Esther in Ornaments of the Daughters of Zion a Puritan conduct book he offers a female type of divine wisdom authority and force In the biblical Book of Esther Esther acts as a female type of wisdom and redemption but her story also engages the larger history of Hebrew salvation In nineteenth century America Margaret Fuller seeks to extend the spiritual claims once made by Mather and establish the role of the divine female in the salvation of American culture and society Fuller supplants the type of male sacrifice with a type of female transfiguration in works such as Woman in the Nineteenth Century Nathaniel Hawthorne then transforms these iconoclastic ideals into literary life by engaging the multi faceted figure of Esther as a typos of female redemption and salvation in Legends of the Province House The Scarlet Letter The Blithedale Romance and The Marble Faun Through his female characters Esther Dudley Hester Prynne Zenobia and Miriam he seeks to fulfill the divine destiny of the American woman Hawthorne discovers however that female redemption is followed by revenge as Esther turns from saving her people to ensuring an end to their oppression When Henry Adams later revives Esther Dudley in his novel Esther he rejects male redemption for the American woman In Democracy Esther Mont Saint Michel and The Education of Henry Adams Adams envisions an independent eternal woman who can rival the political scientific artistic and theological power of men The movement from male to female salvation is achieved when the terms of female redemption are transformed and the American woman is established as her own source of divine wisdom power retribution and force The typology of female transfiguration in America is fulfilled by Fuller Hawthorne and Adams through the promise extended by the type of Esther
