The Magic Spectacles Chauncey Giles,1868      The Magic Spectacles Lilian Moore,Arnold Lobel,1985-01      The Magic Spectacles Chauncey Giles,2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1870 edition Excerpt come that she might call upon her friends the notes who lived in the various lines and spaces and give her new method of learning another trial She found she could remember her lesson much better than ever before Her careful attention to the lines and spaces and the names of the notes on them the comparison of one with another and the living interest excited by making them talk to her had so fixed them in her memory that she found no difficulty in recalling them The hour passed pleasantly away and she was surprised when her mother called her to find the time had been so short Now she was to put the reality of her possession of a magical power to another and severer test Clara was a quick nervous and restless girl and all kinds of confinement and patient attention to little things were very irksome to her Sewing was her especial dislike She had not the patience to take stitch after stitch to make them even and keep her work straight Her mother however thought it necessary for her to learn to sew and a part of two days in the week was spent in doing it Now she thought if I can see how to do my sewing well and can learn to like it I shall know for certain that I have some new and magical power She took up her work with more interest than usual though it was more difficult and trying than she had ever attempted before Her mother prepared her work for her told her how to do it and cautioned her to be patient and do it as nicely as she could Now I shall need my spectacles she said to herself and I must remember how to use them One thing at a time That is certainly good advice in sewing Look sharp That I must do or I shall get the stitches long and short      The Magic Spectacles Richard Cowper,1986      The Magic Spectacles James P.
