

With merciful speed,
the battle was over.

Aaron had won...

...and one of many
possible tomorrows
had been averted.
Humanity still held the
reins on the future.

X.E.R.O. was dead.

Destiny had been fulfilled...

...hadn't it?

He was pondering that very question when
the siren song began
anew.

Aaron turned, in response, and it was there once more. The object. The monolith.

His destiny had not yet been fulfilled. For X-51... Aaron Stack... the Machine Man, there was a new path to follow.

The path to the stars.

The object had so
whispered it... and was before him.

Beckoning.

Now, there were no
doubts to plague him.
Aaron was no longer
the naive techno-child
raised within the confines of his father's home.

He'd long ago been cast out of Eden, and
into a world where
innocence was quickly
lost. A world of conflict and violence into
which he was savagely
abducted.

But now he had become something ...

...else.

And the evolutionary
process was not yet
complete.

Aaron wanted... needed... more...

...and so embraced the monolith...

...which also seemed to want...

...to need...

...him.

His real journey. It seemed, had just begun.
