Shapiro, Tom Jicha, 2015-10-30 A number of books and articles have been written ranking the best situation comedies of all time These have all had something in common subjective criteria based on the authors opinions This book attempts an objective ranking of the best 100 American sitcoms based on a mathematical formula taking into account four factors ratings longevity peer acceptance and spawning of other programs spin offs The authors considered a field of 377 series which met at least one of four criteria aired for at least three seasons rated among top 30 series in at least one season received at least one major Emmy nomination or spawned at least one other series A critical essay is provided for each series along with air dates and cast listings Media Literacy Peyton Paxson, 2002 BEST SELLER Builds critical thinking skills to last a lifetime Builds critical and analytical viewing skills Explores value messages embedded in programs and advertising Helps students recognize the social and economic considerations that affect news reporting A Center for Media Literacy Recommended Resource Critiquing the Sitcom Joanne Morreale, 2002-12-01 This is the first anthology that examines the TV sitcom in terms of its treatment of gender family class race and ethnic issues The selections range from early shows such as I Remember Mama George Lipsitz s Why Remember Mama The Changing Face of a Woman s Narrative to the more recent Roseanne Kathleen Rowe Karlyn s Roseanne Unruly Woman as a Domestic Goddess The volume also looks unflinchingly at major controversies for example the NAACP boycott of the stereotypical yet wildly popular Amos n Andy and the queer reading of Laverne and Shirley These diverse essays constitute a veritable history of postwar American mores Some are classic some forgotten but all indicate the importance of considering text and subtext social historic industrial in the critical study of television A final chapter by Joanne Morreale bids sitcoms adieu with the cultural spectacle of Seinfeld s last episode Queens of Comedy Susan Horowitz, 2012-10-12 Through candid personal interviews with Lucille Ball Carol Burnett and other visionary performers

Queens of Comedy explores how comediennes have redefined the roles of women in not only the entertainment business but society as a whole. Detailing both their public and private lives as well as their many and varied performances, Queen of Comedy examines the impact these women have had on the predominantly male oriented world of comedy. Performers like Carol Burnett, Joan Rivers and their more recent counterparts, comediennes Brett Butler and Roseanne, have helped to sift women's roles in comedy from object to subject. This book maps out this shift, providing an often brutally honest picture of women's lives in both the spotlight of comedy and this modern world.

Popular television drama Jonathan Bignell, Stephen Lacey, 2017-06-01. Popular television drama: critical perspectives is a collection of essays examining landmark programmes of the last forty years from Doctor Who to The Office and from The Demon Headmaster to Queer As Folk. Contributions from prominent academics focus on the full range of popular genres from sitcoms to science fiction, gothic horror and children's drama, and challenge received wisdom by reconsidering how British television drama can be analysed. Each section is preceded by an introduction in which the editors discuss how the essays address existing problems in the field and also suggest new directions for study. The book is split into three sections addressing the enduring appeal of popular genres, the notion of quality in television drama and analysing a range of programmes past and present. Popular television drama: critical perspectives will be of interest to students and researchers in many academic disciplines that study television drama. Its breadth and focus on popular programmes will also appeal to those interested in the shows themselves.

Alternative Scriptwriting Ken Dancyger, Jeff Rush, 2013. Alternative Scriptwriting 4E is an insightful and inspiring book on screenwriting concerned with challenging you to take creative risks with genre, tone, character and structure. Concerned with exploring alternative approaches beyond the traditional three act structure, Alternative Scriptwriting first defines conventional approach, suggests alternatives, then provides case studies. These contemporary examples and case studies demonstrate what works, what doesn't and why. Because the film industry as well as the public demand greater and greater creativity, one must go beyond the traditional three act, restorative and predictable plot to test your limits and break new creative ground. Rather than teaching writing in a tired formulaic manner, this book elevates the subject and provides inspiration to reach new creative heights. Alternative Scriptwriting 4E covers The melodrama and the thriller, Adaptations from contemporary literature, Writing non-fictional narratives for the feature, documentary, An in-depth exploration of point of view and perspective as expressive of the film writer's voice, Voice oriented genres: docudrama, the fable and experimental narrative, Non-linear storytelling, the narrative strategies that are necessary to make an open architecture story work, Considerations for writing for DV that speak to the flexibility and improvisation this medium allows.
