This book Facets of Contemporary History is a selection of research papers presented in the International Conference on Contemporary History which was held on 30th and 31st January 2015 This conference was organized by the Department of History Tourism and Travel Management Ethiraj College for Women Chennai It gives us great pleasure to put together a selection of the papers for the public in the form of a book in the interest of research Contemporary History refers to the history of the immediate past or that which can be expected to remain in living memory While there are areas of history which have branched off from contemporary history such as social history and economic history this conference took a very broad look at contemporary events from not just a historical but also a social science perspective This Book contains 6 Sections namely Political History Socio Cultural History Gender Economic History Environment and Tourism We would like to place on record the Management of the college for the moral and financial support extended in the conduct of the Conference and in the production of the book Thanks are due to our respected Chairman of the Trust Board Mr V M Muralidharan for all his support and encouragement Heartfelt thanks are due to Prof Dr Karu Nagarajan Member Secretary TAMIL NADU STATE COUNCIL FOR HIGHER EDUCATION for their generous financial Assistance towards the conduct of the Conference We would be failing in our duty if we do not thank the faculty of the Department of History Tourism and Travel Management for their support and encouragement in the conduct of the Conference Islamization in Modern

South Asia David Emmanuel Singh,2012-08-31 This book explores the religious identity of the indigenous Gujjars living in Rajaji National Park RNP Uttarakhand India In the broader context of forest conservation discourse steps taken by the local government to relocate the Gujjars outside RNP have been crucial in their choice to associate with NGOs and Deobandi Muslims These intersecting associations constitute the context of their transitioning religious identity The book presents a rich account of the actual process of Islamization through the collaborative agency of Deobandi madrasas and Tablighi Jama at Based on documents and interviews collected over four years it constructs a particular case of Deobandi reform and also balances this with a layered description of the Gujjar responses It argues that in their association with the Deobandis the Gujjars internalized the normative dimensions of beliefs and practices but not at the expense of their traditional Hindu folk culture This capacity for adaptation bodes well for the Gujjars but their proper integration with wider society seems assured only in association with the Deobandis Consequently this research also points toward the role of Islam in integrating marginal groups in the wider context of society in South Asia SOCIO-ECONOMIC CONDITIONS OF SLUM
