Things quickly spiral out of control and a day of birthday ditching threatens to turn downright deviant. K.C. of a Thousand Trails Gay Paris Pratt, 2011-03-29 Have you ever wondered how one person could have crossed paths with you at a convenient time in your life? Some people plan it out methodically from childhood. Others were born to serve a mission on earth from God that endures throughout their entire lifetime. My amazing cat K.C. was one of these beings. Have you ever considered that God's animal beings have missions on earth too? This is a true story of one such sentient being in a cat suit who was assigned by the angels to pounce upon an unsuspecting woman's life that was in shambles in a time when internet and smartphones did not exist. This cat helped save her from choosing death and then devoted his entire life to transforming her into a better human being. This cat had a mission assigned from God. The mission was me. This story is not to convince you but rather to enlighten you as to the possibilities of the divine along with the billions of internet cat and pet videos of people who are trying to share the good news of their intelligence: animals have souls. This account is to serve as a comfort to anyone who has lost someone, be it your pet companion or human relation, to a serious illness. No one escapes the pain of heartbreak, but to endure such an obstacle course of anguish brings a light of lasting peace that will anchor your heart with joy that exists past this lifetime, being reunited again with beloved pets in the hereafter. It's called love.

The Wrong Grief Andrea Landy, 2024-04-05 Alice Buchner is an exceptionally smart girl and a brilliant student but an introverted and awkward kid. At thirteen, Alice witnesses the brutal murder of her cherished older sister Marisa by a loved one. Alice is the only eyewitness to the murder, but the authorities are unable to use her testimony because it is tainted with rare traumatic hallucinations that occur during the crime. Alice's support system is a workaholic father and his few bewildered employees, a paranoid schizophrenic aunt, emotionally distant grandparents, and a guilt-ridden detective who, suffering from his own loss, may have botched the case in the first place. Her despair hurts the few good friends she has while her new enemies become monsters. The perpetrator never receives a just sentence, and Alice plummets into a world of alcoholism, drug abuse, and profound mental illness. Throughout her journey, Alice continues to search relentlessly for answers and hopeful retribution for a killer when justice has supposedly already been served. The Wrong Grief is a character study that searches deep into the mind of an emotionally troubled and wounded young woman who must decide to either embrace her perpetual

A Mixture of Thoughts Filton Hebbard,Hebbard Filton Hebbard,2009-09 I strongly believe that neither stories nor verse should be written in any choice of words that are beyond the vocabulary of prospective readers It is irritating to read fiction with a dictionary by one s side nor should it be necessary The late Sir Winston Churchill a master of the English language won the hearts of his fellow country men and women during World War 2 because in his speeches he chose a language known to every level of education He did not want anybody to marvel at his vocabulary then wonder what it meant He wanted them all to understand his vocabulary and feel the depth of it in its simplicity and sincerity As a child I admired his ability to reach every English man woman or child who heard him speak So I rarely use words that are stumbling blocks to the pleasure of reading In this book I have tried to touch on the sentiments that could be in any of us Apart from the poetry there are three stories of varying lengths and they each take us into very different minds Filton Hebbard Kat Greene Comes Clean Melissa Roske,2017-08-22 Life is messy Kat Greene lives in New York City and attends fifth grade in the very progressive Village Humanity School At the moment she has three major problems dealing with her boy crazy best friend partnering with the overzealous Sam in the class production of Harriet the Spy and coping with her mother s preoccupation with cleanliness a symptom of her worsening obsessive compulsive disorder With nowhere to turn Kat reaches out to the free spirited psychologist Olympia at her new age private school in New York s Greenwich Village Olympia encourages Kat to be honest Eventually Kat realizes that sometimes asking for help is the best way to clean up life s messes
