Structural Health Monitoring of Composite Structures Using Fiber Optic Methods Ginu Rajan, B. Gangadhara Prusty, 2016-10-03 This highly comprehensive introductory book explains the basics of structural health monitoring aspects of composite structures. This book serves as an all in one reference book in which the reader can receive a basic understanding of composite materials manufacturing methods, the latest types of optical fiber sensors used for structural health monitoring of composite structures, and demonstrated applications of the use of fiber sensors in a variety of composite material structures. The content draws upon the authors' and distinguished contributors' extensive research, teaching, and industrial experience to fully cover the structural health monitoring of composite materials using fiber optic sensing methods.

Intelligent Macromolecules for Smart Devices Liming Dai, 2006-04-18 The age of nanotechnology is upon us. Engineering at the molecular level is no longer a computer-generated curiosity and is beginning to affect the lives of everyone. Molecules which can respond to their environment and the smart machines we can build with them are and will continue to be a vital part of this 21st century revolution. Liming Dai presents the latest work on many newly discovered intelligent macromolecular systems and reviews their uses in nano devices. Intelligent Macromolecules for Smart Devices features an accessible assessment of the properties and materials chemistry of all the major classes of intelligent macromolecules from optoelectronic biomacromolecules to dendrimers, artificial opals, and carbon nanotubes. In depth analysis of various smart devices including a critique of the suitability of different molecules for building each type of device. A concise compilation of the practical applications of intelligent macromolecules including sensors and actuators, polymer batteries, carbon nanotube supercapacitors, novel lasing species, and photovoltaic cells. As an exposition of cutting edge research against a backdrop of comprehensive review, Intelligent Macromolecules for Smart Devices will be an essential addition to the bookshelf of academic and industrial researchers in nanotechnology. Graduate and senior undergraduate students looking to make their mark in this field of the future will also find it most instructive.

Structural Health Monitoring 2006 Alfredo Güemes, 2006 These proceedings of the Third European Workshop on Structural Health Monitoring held at the Conference Centre in Granada, Spain, in July of 2006, includes four keynote presentations and 170 technical papers written by an international group of contributors. Papers discuss technology and activities related to damage detection and evaluation in engineering.

Bacterial Growth and Lysis M.A. de Pedro, J.V. Hölte, Wolfgang Löffelhardt, 2013-11-11 This volume is based on a FEMS Symposium entitled Bacterial Growth and Lysis: Metabolism and Structure of the Bacterial Saccus, held at the Monastery of Lluc, Mallorca, Spain, on 5-10 April 1992. The goals of the symposium were to assess the present state of knowledge on the structure and physiology of the bacterial murein sacculus and to develop new hypotheses and strategies to promote further development of the field. Consequently, the contributions compiled in this volume include broadly different approaches from the introduction of new analytical methods to the presentation of provocative models for cell wall growth and division Structural biochemical and genetic aspects are widely covered with special emphasis on the enzymology and regulation of murein hydrolases autolysins Comprehensive reviews on bacterial S layers and yeast cell walls are included to stimulate conceptual cross feeding with these closely related topics We believe that this book will provide the reader with a useful and up to date review of the topic We would feel deeply rewarded by any positive influence this book may have on the future progress of the field whereby all the scientific credit for it should be given to the authors of the excellent contributions presented

Fiber Bragg Grating Sensors: Recent Advancements, Industrial Applications and Market Exploitation Andrea Cusano, Antonello Cutolo, Jacques Albert, 2011 The book is an exciting source of information for individuals interested in learning about and marketing sensors The book focuses on scientific and commercial advances in Fiber Bragg Grating FBG sensor technology since its discovery over 30 years ago

Intelligent Computing for Cultural Heritage Xiaoguang Wang, Marcia Lei Zeng, Jin Gao, Ke Zhao, 2024-07-11 This book offers a global perspective on the latest advancements and trends in digital humanities and intelligent computing of cultural heritage covering both academic research and case studies within cultural institutions This edited volume brings together views and practices from different regions including Asia Europe Africa North America and Australia It offers innovative approaches and case studies related to humanities data and digital methods with a focus on digital humanities research and pedagogy and cultural heritage organisation and preservation in particular the development of digital knowledge repositories and methods for digital intelligence in cultural heritage Each case study highlights unique cultural characteristics and academic histories resulting in diverse development priorities and thematic directions However this diversity can also lead to imbalances and isolation within the field To gain a better understanding of the complex trends in the development of the digital humanities this book offers valuable insights from case studies and research practices showcasing global contributions from scholars and institutions This title will appeal to scholars and students of digital humanities and information science particularly those studying heritage management and intelligent computing Professionals working at the intersection of technology and cultural heritage will also find this book of great interest The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
