St. Pierre, 1985 Stories describe the lives of people living in an isolated British Columbia community including young and old Indians a retired trapper a would be cattle baron and a local bank manager Smith and Other Events [sound Recording] : Stories of the Chilcotin Paul St. Pierre, Krieger, Edgar, Herbert, Frank, 1910?-1983 The Archive of Place William Turkel, 2011-11-01 The Archive of Place weaves together a series of narratives about environmental history in a particular location British Columbia's Chilcotin Plateau In the mid 1990s the Chilcotin was at the centre of three territorial conflicts Opposing groups in their struggle to control the fate of the region and its resources invoked different understandings of its past and different types of evidence to justify their actions These controversies serve as case studies as William Turkel examines how people interpret material traces to reconstruct past events the conditions under which such interpretation takes place and the role that this interpretation plays in historical consciousness and social memory It is a wide ranging and original study that extends the span of conventional historical research The Concise Oxford Companion to Canadian Literature William Toye, 2001 The concise version of the critically acclaimed second edition of The Oxford Companion to Canadian Literature offers all the authority of the original in a smaller more affordable format Entries have been updated and over sixty new entries have been added making it an indispensable resource The Power of the Dog Thomas Savage, Annie Proulx, 2009-09-26 Now an Academy Award winning Netflix film by Jane Campion starring Benedict Cumberbatch and Kirsten Dunst Thomas Savage's acclaimed Western is a pitch perfect evocation of time and place Boston Globe for fans of East of Eden and Brokeback Mountain Set in the wide open spaces of the American West The Power of the Dog is a stunning story of domestic tyranny brutal masculinity and thrilling defiance from one of the most powerful and distinctive voices in American literature The novel tells the story of two brothers one magnetic but cruel the other gentle and quiet and of the mother and son whose arrival on the brothers ranch shatters an already tenuous peace From the novel's startling first paragraph to its very last word Thomas Savage's voice and the intense passion of his characters holds readers in thrall Gripping and powerful A work of literary art Annie Proulx from her afterword Short Stories Library of Congress. National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped, 1989 Programming Reality Zoë Druick, Aspa Kotsopoulos, 2008-08-01 Programming Reality Perspectives on English Canadian Television the first anthology dedicated to analyses of Canadian television content is a collection of original interdisciplinary articles combining textual analysis and political economy of communications It explores the television that has thrived in the Canadian regulatory and cultural context namely programs that straddle the border between reality and fiction or even blur it The conceptual basis of this collection is the hybrid nature of television fare the widely theorized notion that all mediations of reality involve fiction in the form of narrative or symbolic shaping Each of the contributions here is a reminder too of the significant relationship of television to nation building in Canada to the imaginative work involved in thinking through the relations that constitute nations citizens and communities The collection focuses on English language Canadian television because the imperatives guiding its texts are markedly different from those pertaining to their French language counterparts The collection therefore develops a nuance of perspective on the cultural and political economic specificities that inform the imaginative work of television production for English Canada
