Social Dynamics Of Deforestation In The Philippines Actions Options And Motivations:

The Social Dynamics of Deforestation in the Philippines Gerhard van den Top, 2003 This work offers a detailed case study on the dynamics of forest use degradation and loss in Northeast Luzon Philippines Following an interdisciplinary approach the study charts the degradation and loss of forest in this area between 1950 and 1990 as it relates to the social and political context of logging forest migration and changes in upland agriculture Based on ten years of research the author introduces us to the actions livelihood options and motives of all the principal group of actors

The Social Dynamics of Deforestation in the Philippines Gerhard M. van den Top, 2003 Southeast Asia Peter Boomgaard, 2006-12-14 From Angkor Wat to Agent Orange Southeast Asia An Environmental History tells the story of some of the most dramatic effects humans have had on the natural and developed environment anywhere in the world and examines the ways in which environmental factors have helped shape the culture politics and societies of the region Ever since the first humanlike creatures arrived some 80 000 years ago Southeast Asia s varied and challenging environment has helped shape the course of human destiny From the importance of its spices to 17th century Europeans to the jungle canopies that sheltered Communist insurgents throughout much of the 20th century the region s environment has often proven decisive in human affairs Packed with key facts and analysis Southeast Asia provides an expert guide to the complex interplay between human societies and the environment from Burma to the Philippines and from Vietnam to Indonesia How has the environment helped shape politics trade and religion What are the likely consequences of ongoing deforestation for Southeast Asia s people and animals Part of ABC CLIO s Nature and Human Societies series this work charts the region s environmental history from prehistory to modern times and is essential reading for students and experts alike Development in Place José C. M. van Santen, 2008 In humanity s struggle to find timely solutions to environmental problems it is easily forgotten that access to our shared spaces has never been equal This collection deals with the landscapes and places of rural urban and wilderness areas in relation development Contributions examine the complex relationship that human beings maintain with their rural and urban environments and with other species in various places and spaces Nothing is taken for granted colonial history globalization localization hybrid relationships colonial or shared architecture religious backgrounds and claims to equal access all fuse with policy strategies This volume discusses these issues within the framework of developmental discourse while asserting the rights of access to the global commons for all world citizens as well as other species

Explaining Foreign Policy in Post-Colonial Africa Stephen M. Magu, 2021-01-02 This book explores foreign policy developments in post colonial Africa A continental foreign policy is a tenuous proposition yet new African states emerged out of armed resistance and advocacy from regional allies such as the Bandung Conference and the League of Arab States Ghana was the first Sub Saharan African country to gain independence in 1957 Fourteen more countries gained independence in 1960 alone and by May 1963 when the Organisation of African Unity OAU was formed 30 countries were independent An early OAU committee was the African Liberation Committee ALC tasked to work in the Frontline States FLS to support independence in Southern Africa Pan Africanists in alliance with Brazzaville Casablanca and Monrovia groups approached continental unity differently and regionalism continued to be a major feature Africa's challenges were often magnified by the capitalist democratic versus communist socialist bloc rivalry but through Africa's use and leveraging of IGOs the UN UNDP UNECA GATT NIEO and others to advance development the formation of the African Economic Community OAU's evolution into the AU and other alliances belied collective actions even as Africa implemented decisions that required cooperation uti possidetis maintaining colonial borders containing secession intra and inter state conflicts rebellions and building RECs and a united Africa as envisioned by Pan Africanists worked better collectively

Cutting Cosmos Henrik Hvenegaard Mikkelsen, 2018-04-25 For the first time in over 30 years a new ethnographic study emerges on the Bugkalot tribe more widely known as the Ilongot of the northern Philippines Exploring the notion of masculinity among the Bugkalot Cutting Cosmos is not only an experimental anthropological study of the paradoxes around which Bugkalot society revolves but also a reflection on anthropological theory and writing Focusing on the transgressive acts through which masculinity is performed this book explores the idea of the cosmic cut the ritual act that enables the Bugkalot man to momentarily hold still the chaotic flows of his world

Borneo and Sulawesi Ooi Keat Gin, 2019-11-28 This book presents a great deal of new research findings on the history of Borneo the history of Sulawesi and the interrelationship between the two islands Some specific chapters focus on empires and colonizers including the activities of James Brooke in Sulawesi of Chinese mining communities in Borneo and of the quisling issue in immediate post war Sarawak Other chapters consider indigenous peoples and how different regimes have handled them The book is published in honour of Victor T King a leading scholar in the field of Southeast Asian studies and a final chapter discusses his contribution to scholarship in particular his views on how area studies should be approached and the implications of this for future research

Smallholder Tree Growing for Rural Development and Environmental Services Denyse J. Snelder, Rodel D. Lasco, 2008-07-19 Recent history reveals that both the large scale reforestation projects of the 20th century have often been less successful than anticipated and that tree growing by smallholders as an alternative means to combat deforestation and promote sustainable land use has received relatively little attention from the scientific and development communities Taking a first step to addressing that balance this collection of peer reviewed papers adopts a comparative approach to explore the potential role that tree growing by farmers can play in sustainable forest management The goal of this approach is to identify common threads and to start to develop a framework for future research and practice Presenting case studies from the Philippines and comparative data from a number of Asian countries the book reveals that farmer tree growing has the potential to play a significant role in sustainable forest management and discusses the surrounding issues which must be addressed in order to realise this potential The book is primarily aimed at research scientists and graduate students interested in relevant aspects of forestry agroforestry agricultural diversity natural resource management and conservation in agricultural landscapes as well as those involved in sustainable development and international development studies It will also provide a valuable reference for professionals managers consultants policy makers and planners dealing with issues in sustainable development natural resource management land use change issues and participatory approaches to resource management

Sustainability Science: Field Methods and Exercises Miguel Esteban, Tomohiro Akiyama, Chiahsin Chen, Izumi Ikeda, Takashi Mino, 2016-07-29 This book builds up on the experience and lessons learnt by academics at the Graduate Program in Sustainability Science Global Leadership Initiative GPSS GLI at the University of Tokyo A number of scholars in the new field of sustainability science describe how field methods and exercises are carried out in this discipline together with the theoretical basis for such exercises Case studies of various countries around the world where these exercises are carried out are showcased emphasizing the various socio economic considerations and problems facing humanity and possible ways forward to build more sustainable and resilient societies The final objective is to enrich the field of sustainability science by describing the novel aspects used in the field exercises carried out by practitioners of this cross disciplinary field
