Social Psychology Identities And Relationships:

Social Psychology Kopano Ratele, Norman Duncan, 2003 Using current socio political thought and research this book examines topics such as violence social and political transition race and racism and sexualities Theoretical and empirical research are related to topical problems highlighting the complex relations of individuals to their societies and to one another The histories and complexities of problems and their interconnectedness are examined and possible solutions are suggested Special attention is paid to class sexuality gender and race making psychology in general and social psychology in particular relevant and exciting Social Psychology, 2017 Social Psychology - Identities and Relationships K. Ratele, N. Duncan, 2004-05-01 Community Psychology Anthony Naidoo, Jace Pillay, Brett Bowman, 2007 Book CD Community Psychology contains a rich diversity of insights and critical debates on the key theoretical analytic teaching learning and action approaches in community psychology The book offers an incisive examination of a range of contextual factors that influence the practice of community psychology in South Africa Social Psychology Stainton Rogers, Wendy, 2011-06-01 This is an introductory social psychology textbook that acknowledges two very different approaches being taken to social psychology experimental and critical These conflicting approaches are brought together in a single coherent text Handbook of International Feminisms Alexandra Rutherford, Rose Capdevila, Vindhya Undurti, Ingrid Palmariy, 2011-08-23 The goal of Handbook of International Perspectives on Feminism is to present the histories status and contours of feminist research and practice in their respective regional and or national contexts The editors have invited researchers who are doing this work to present their perspectives on women culture and rights with the objective to illuminate the diverse forms that feminist psychological work takes around the world and connect these forms with the unique positions and concerns of women in these regions What does feminist psychology look like in Japan In South Africa In Sri Lanka In Canada In Brazil How did it come to look this way How do psychologists in these countries or regions each with unique political economic and cultural histories engage in feminist work in the societies in which they live How do they employ the tools of psychology broadly defined to do this work and what tensions and challenges have they faced

Blackwashing Homophobia Melanie Judge, 2017-08-22 As lesbian gay bisexual transgender and intersex identities increasingly secure legal recognition across the globe these formal equality gains are contradicted by the continued presence of violence Such violence emerges as a political pressure point for contestations of identity and power within wider systems of global and local inequality Discourses of homophobia related violence constitute subjectivities that enact violence and that are rendered vulnerable to it as well as shaping political possibilities to act against violence Blackwashing Homophobia critiques prevailing discourses through which violence and its queer targets are normatively understood exploring the knowledge regimes in which multiple forms of othering are both reproduced and or resisted This book draws on primary research on lesbian subjectivity and violence in South Africa examining the intersections of sexual gender race and class identities and the contemporary politics of violence in a postcolonial context What are the contending ways of knowing queers and the violence they face How are the causes characters consequence of and cures for violence constructed through such knowledges and what are their power effects The book explores these questions and their implications for how violence as an instrument of power might be countered Blackwashing Homophobia is a timely intervention for theorising the discourse of homophobia related violence and what it reveals and conceals enables and hinders in relation to queer identities and political imaginaries in times of violence The book s interdisciplinary approach to the topic will appeal to social and political scientists philosophers and psychology professionals as well as to advanced psychology undergraduates and postgraduates alike Perspectives on Youth, HIV/AIDS and Indigenous Knowledges Anders Breidlid, Austin M. Cheyeka, Alawia Ibrahim Farag, 2015-10-13

This volume is the result of academic cooperation between scholars in Norway Sudan Zambia and South Africa linked to a master s program in international education and development It draws upon studies carried out in Sudan Zambia Namibia and South Africa Most of the chapters deal with the HIV AIDS pandemic in various ways Because youth are the group most vulnerable to HIV AIDS the various chapters discuss the complex discursive spaces that youth inhabit and navigate and where the interlocking concepts of social identity power inequality sexuality vulnerability and resilience are brought together Many of the chapters discuss the HIV AIDS pandemic in relation to indigenous knowledges and argue for including indigenous knowledges in the fight against the pandemic The suggestion to include indigenous knowledges opens space for a more varied holistic and comprehensive approach to the pandemic The book invites readers to explore the oppressive and often dangerous socioeconomic situation that many youth in sub Saharan Africa experience also beyond the HIV AIDS pandemic Chapters on street youth in Namibia and youth in a township in Cape Town discuss the often creative coping mechanisms employed by youth to escape or mitigate the oppressive situations they find themselves in Affective Health and Masculinities in South Africa Hans Reihling, 2020-04-03 Affective Health and Masculinities in South Africa explores how different masculinities modulate substance use interpersonal violence suicidality and AIDS as well as recovery cross culturally With a focus on three male protagonists living in very distinct urban areas of Cape Town this comparative ethnography shows that men s struggles to become invulnerable increase vulnerability Through an analysis of masculinities as social assemblages the study shows how affective health problems are tied to modern individualism rather than African tradition that has become a cliché in Eurocentric gender studies Affective health is conceptualized as a balancing act between autonomy and connectivity that after colonialism and apartheid has become compromised through the imperative of self reliance This book provides a rare perspective on young men s vulnerability in everyday life that may affect the reader and spark discussion about how masculinities in relationships shape physical and psychological health Moreover it shows how men change in the face of distress in ways that may look different than global health and gender transformative approaches envision Thick descriptions of actual events over the life course make the study
