Negotiating the Religious in Contemporary Everyday Life in the "Islamic World" Roman Loimeier, 2021 The contributions to the present volume show that the countries that are often presented in the literature as forming part of a stereotypical and seemingly monolithic Islamic world in fact represent considerable diversity From Iran to Senegal we encounter a vast array of social and religious structures historical trajectories political regimes and relative positions of societies and individuals We encounter also in many different and often unexpected ways the individual in multiple contexts The present volume presents perspectives on everyday life in Muslim societies beyond the spectacular From a broad academic background in Islamic and Iranian studies social anthropology sociology philosophy and history its contributors show that everyday life as well as religious practice in countries as diverse as Senegal Niger Egypt Tunisia and Iran is not informed by one single Islamic tradition but rather by multiple and often surprisingly different modes of religiosity and non religiosity
