Text As Topos In The Religious Literature Of The Spanish Golden Age:

Text as Topos in Religious Literature of the Spanish Golden Age M. Louise Salstad, 1995-01-01 Text as Topos in Religious Literature of the Spanish Golden Age M. Louise Salstad, 1995 The central component of this study is an index of the numerous motifs through which topoi of the text as symbol are articulated in the religious poetry sermons and sacramental plays of Golden Age Spain Paired with the index is an anthology of the texts on which the book is based In her introduction Louise Salstad discusses the transmission and transformation of the topoi as they appear in the Old and New Testaments classical literature church writings and medieval texts and she considers the influence of the contemporary milieu on the shaping of these motifs The book also includes an explanatory introduction to the index biographical notes on authors a chronology of works a bibliography and key word indexes of motifs in English and Spanish The most extensive investigation of specific topoi undertaken in Spanish studies this book will also be of interest to art historians and cultural historians whose focus is theology the history of spirituality or the history of the book Puerto Rican Cultural Identity and the Work of Luis Rafael Sánchez John Perivolaris, 2000 This book undertakes the most comprehensive and theoretically rigorous examination to date of Luis Rafael Sánchez's work in the context of cultural politics in Puerto Rico and of the international and regional dimensions of Sánchez's work in relation to Literature and Historiography in the Spanish Golden Age Sofie Kluge, 2021-09-30 Golden Age departures in historiography and theory of history in some ways prepared the ground for modern historical methods and ideas about historical factuality At the same time they fed into the period's own aesthetic historical culture which amalgamated fact and fiction in ways modern historians would consider counterfactual a culture where imaginative historical prose poetry and drama self consciously rivalled the accounts of royal chroniclers and the dispatches of diplomatic envoys a culture dominated by a notion of truth in which skilful construction of the argument and exemplarity took precedence over factual accuracy Literature and Historiography in the Spanish Golden Age The Poetics of History investigates this grey area backdrop of modern ideas about history delving into a variety of Golden Age aesthetic historical works which cannot be satisfactorily described as either works of literature or works of historiography but which belong in between these later strictly separate categories The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license The Charm of Catastrophe Alice Fiola Berry, 2000 Published in two parts in 1548 and 1552 Le Quart Livre is Rabelais's last book of certain authenticity and his most difficult and mysterious work In it Pantagruel and Panurge undertake a sea voyage and a quest for the word of the Divine Bottle but the islands they visit along the way are inhabited by strange beings whose nature and physiognomy defy natural categories Expressing the elderly writer's despair at the failure of all his dreams as a young humanist the voyage traces the last phase of the heroic quest the cycle of old age and death It is a descent into the underworld but one that is undertaken hopefully for the Quart Livre continues the search for a wife and for paternity begun in the Tiers Livre Ultimately all of these strivings may be associated with the writer physician who faces misfortunes in order to cure them In the end the Quart Livre affirms the healing power of wine laughter and words The Leper in Blue Amalia Gladhart,2000 Drawing on contemporary debates surrounding performance gender and latin American studies this book examines representations of performance within dramatic texts It explores the work of individual playwrights such as Vicente Lenero and topics including ritual game playing El renacimiento espiritual Armando Pego Puigbó,2004 "Pueblos Enfermos" Michael Aronna,1999 This book investigates three examples of the turn of the century essay in Spain and Latin America Angel Ganivet s Idearium espanol 1897 Jose Enrique Rodo s Ariel 1900 and Alcides Arguedas s Pueblo enfermo 1909 Michael Aronna traces the reactions of these historically and rhetorically related colonial and postcolonial thinkers to the new economic cultural social and political challenges of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries He shows how concepts of sexual degeneration racial inferiority immaturity and gender prominent in contemporary philosophy and science were central to these writers shared understanding of the nation as an organism vulnerable to social pathogens A Medieval Pilgrim's Companion Thomas Dean Spaccarelli,1998 In this book Thomas Spaccarelli argues that the Escorial codex usually published and studied as nine separate saints lives and romances is in fact a unified and organized whole He shows how the codex is intimately related to the pilgrimage to Santiago de Compostela and to the religious literary and artistic traditions associated with it The Libro was produced by a team of compilers who chose and translated specific French works with the goal of providing edification and encouragement to Spanish speaking pilgrims Spaccarelli elucidates the Libro s ideology of pilgrimage which includes such concepts as guest host theology egalitarianism and the matter of imitatio Christi In addition he proposes a series of structural elements operative in the Libro that bind the nine works into a whole Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1991 Cloister, Court and City Janet Hathaway,2005 The Aesthetics of Artifice Marie Lathers,1996 Drawing on feminist and psychoanalytic theory this study exposes the ideological foundations of Villiers de l Isle Adam s L Eve Future a late 19th century revision of the Genesis story Villier s future Eve who owes her life to man s manipulation of sculptural techniques photography and film symbolizes the complex conjunction of literature art technology and the feminine in the late 19th century The novel thus charts modernity s restructuring of traditional aesthetics to accommodate the age of mechanical reproduction The female body becomes the locus of this manifesto of technology producing a discourse on artificiality and and the feminine which Lathers s study exposes in detail It also relates this monstrous tale to other versions of woman s fabrication in this and the last century and interrogates theories of the aesthetic the technological and the feminine from Hegel and Baudelaire to Benjamin and Barthes It is a contribution to current debate centering on the construction of gender and its place in literature and art Melancholy and the Secular Mind in Spanish Golden Age Literature Teresa Scott Soufas,1990 Employing a broad historical perspective that forces the reevaluation of historical and literary commonplaces Soufas artfully illuminates the complex responses of Spanish Golden

Age authors to major shifts in European intellectual outlook during the late sixteenth and early seventeenth century
 Publishers website Galdós's Segunda Manera Linda M. Willem, 1998 This book explores the change that occurred in the writings of Spanish novelist Benito Perez Galdos when he entered his segunda manera in 1881 with the publication of La desheredada his first contemporary novel Critical work on this important phase of Galdos's career has tended to concentrate on the content of his novels with little attention given to the way in which Galdos conveys that content to the reader By studying these works in light of how their stories are told Linda Willem shows that La desheredada marks the beginning of a more sophisticated and varied mode of narrative in Galdos's novels Through close readings of his first seven contemporary works Willem shows how the affective response associated with various narrative devices plays a role in the rhetorical strategies of each text The Poetics of Inconstancy Hoyt Rogers, 1998 The transformation of Late Petrarchism from earlier stages reflects a profound shift in cultural values a crisis of the Renaissance that generated new perspectives in poetic theory and practice Broadly this book identifies a distinctive poetics of inconstancy that came to the fore at the end of the sixteenth century and pervaded the love verse of the age At the same time as a study based on the inductive method the book takes as its point of departure a single poet Etienne Durand Because of his frequently anthologized Stances a l'Inconstance Durand is often singled out as the poet of inconstancy This study however identifies the theme of universal change as a hallmark of Durand's contemporaries as well a signal of a stylistic revolution that heralded the end of Renaissance verse

Ronsard's Contentious Sisters Roberto E. Campo, 1998 This book examines Ronsard's participation in the heated paragone debate between poets and painters the Renaissance contest for superiority in the ranking of the arts that emerged in counterpoint to the parity centered pseudo Horatian principle of ut pictura poesis as is painting so is poetry The book explores issues that despite their importance throughout Ronsard's poetry and the writings of leading paragone theorists such as Leone Battista Alberti and Leonardo da Vinci have remained largely unnoticed In broadest terms Roberto Campo investigates the poet's notions about the differences between poems and pictures More precisely it examines Ronsard's views on two fundamental preoccupations of the theoretical and practical discussions about the arts during the Renaissance which mode of expression word or image can more accurately and meaningfully represent natural realities and abstract celestial truths and thus whose art the poet's or the painter's holds the highest station in the hierarchy of human creative endeavor

Cervantes, Literature, and the Discourse of Politics Anthony J. Cascardi, 2012-01-01 Cervantes Literature and the Discourse of Politics convincingly re-engages the ancient roots of political theory in modern literature by situating Cervantes within a long line of political thinkers Dislocations of Desire Alison Sinclair, 1998 This study of La Regenta by Alas draws both on psychoanalytic theory and on an understanding of the social sexual and medical norms of the period in which the novel was written It proposes that the novel be understood as a coded summary of desire fantasied dislocated repudiated and thwarted South Atlantic Review , 1995 Bibliographic Index , 1997
