

ADECUACIÓN, COHERENCIA Y COHESIÓN.

El texto es una unidad comunicativa que presenta tres propiedades constitutivas: la adecuación, la coherencia y la cohesión.

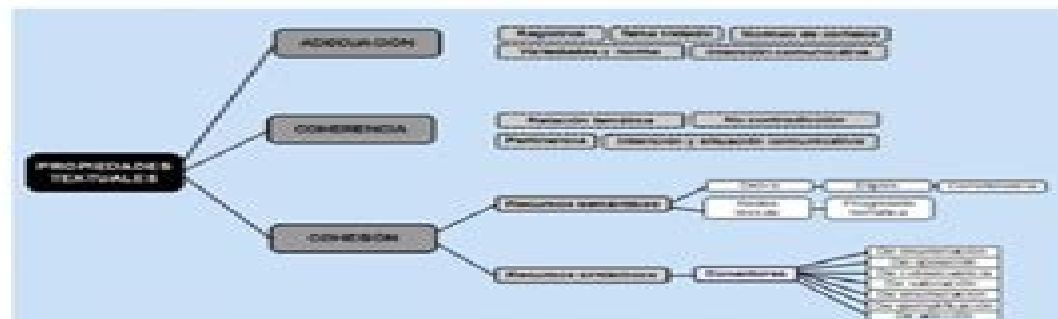

- La adecuación es la adaptación del texto a la situación comunicativa.
- La coherencia se encarga de que el texto sea una unidad de sentido global y que todos los elementos se relacionen.
- La cohesión relaciona los elementos del texto a través de procedimientos gramaticales o léxicos.

Propiedades textuales

Las propiedades textuales son las características que debe tener un texto para ser comprendido.

La adecuación, la coherencia y la cohesión son necesarias para que un texto se amolde correctamente a una situación comunicativa, sea una unidad con sentido global y sus partes estén interrelacionadas de manera lógica y comprensible. Si un texto no presenta alguna de las propiedades textuales, no va a lograr ser exitoso para poder comunicar una idea.
