That Chinese Woman:

The Chinese Lady Nancy E. Davis, 2022 In 1834 a Chinese woman named Afong Moy arrived in America as both a prized guest and an advertisement for a merchant firm a promotional curiosity with bound feet and a celebrity used to peddle exotic wares from the East This first biography of Afong Moy explores how she shaped Americans impressions of China while living as a stranger in a foreign land      That Chinese Woman That Chinese ..., 1959      The Chinese Lady Lloyd Suh, 2019 Afong Moy is fourteen years old when she s brought to the United States from Guangzhou Province in 1834 Allegedly the first Chinese woman to set foot on U S soil she has been put on display for the American public as The Chinese Lady For the next half century she performs for curious white people showing them how she eats what she wears and the highlight of the event how she walks with bound feet As the decades wear on her celebrated sideshow comes to define and challenge her very sense of identity Inspired by the true story of Afong Moy s life THE CHINESE LADY is a dark poetic yet whimsical portrait of America through the eyes of a young Chinese woman      The Chinese National Character Lung-Ke Sun, 2002 This unique survey of the evolution of the modern Chinese national character incorporates a rich blend of history and theory as well as nation gender and film studies It begins with the dawn of the concept of nation in China at the end of the Imperial period and follows its development from early Republican China to the present People s Republic drawing on themes of national identity Orientalness racial evolution and purity cultural and gender roles regional animosities historical impediments and more The book also takes up the changing American perceptions of Chinese personality development and gender using materials from American popular culture      Love and Marriage in Globalizing China Wang Pan, 2014-11-13 As China globalizes the number of marriages between Chinese people and foreigners is increasing These Chinese foreign marriages have profound implications for China s cultural identity This book based on extensive original research outlines the different types of Chinese foreign marriage and divorce and the changing scale and changing patterns of such marriages and divorces and examines how such marriages and divorces are portrayed in different kinds of media It shows how those types of Chinese foreign marriage where Chinese patriotism and Chinese values are preserved are depicted favourably whereas other kinds of Chinese foreign marriage especially those where Chinese women marry foreign nationals are disapproved of male foreign nationals being seen as having a propensity to infidelity deception violence and taking advantage of Chinese women The book contrasts the portrayal of Chinese foreign marriage with the reality and with the depiction of Chinese Chinese marriage where many of the same problems apply Overall the book sheds much light on changing social processes and on current imaginings of China s place in the world      Globalizing Chinese Migration Pál Nyíri, Igor Saveliev, 2018-12-20 This title was first published in 2003 Globalizing Chinese Migration is the first volume to deal comprehensively with the most recent wave of the migration from the People s Republic of China to Europe and Asia By analyzing the Chinese state s role in this migration the authors dismiss as fiction the theory sometimes advanced by hostile and racist foreign observers that Chinese authorities are intent on using mass emigration as an expansionist tool They go on to explain that migrants who might in earlier times have been reviled as traitors and absconders are today more likely to be viewed by sections of the Chinese state bureaucracy as patriots who remain part of China's polity and economy and contribute to its standing overseas Some senior officials however particularly diplomats stress the harm done by new migrants both to China's economy which loses assets as a result of the migrants entrepreneurial activities and to its reputation in the world An essential resource for academics and students alike the volume presents important new data on aspects of Chinese migration largely neglected in the existing English language literature These include new forms of emigration from China by students and by workers from the country's north eastern provinces and emigration to destinations including Russia Southeast Asia and Japan normally unremarked by students of population movements      Papers relating to the foreign relations of the United States, 1889      Chinese Women Through Chinese Eyes Li Yu-ning, 2015-07-17 The special focus of this book is the lives and experiences of women in China in the first half of the 20th century Part One Historical Interpretations presents essays by Western educated Chinese women and men on the historical role of women in a time of great social and economic upheaval Part Two Self Portraits of Women in Modern China presents the views of women who experienced life in this period through essays and autobiographies that range from women as concubines to women as factory workers from women suffering footbinding to women serving as nurses from women in traditional role in a traditional family to women as scientists and teachers      Maternal Healthcare and Doulas in China Zoe Z. Dai, 2022-01-13 This brief explores the resurgence of the role of doulas in the child birthing process in Chinese clinical settings as a lens to understand comparative pre and post natal care worldwide The demand for doulas in China is increasing and the rise in the use of doulas is thought to be due to increasing dissatisfaction with current institutional maternity health care Attention is focused on Chinese women's relationships with their bodies and on women's experiences of choice agency and access to health and reproductive services as well as maternal health care information and support Chapters present an overview of the current experience of pre and post natal care in China In addition chapters explore interview data on how Chinese doulas construct multiple identities in terms of serving as lactation consultants child care providers and child care educators for women during pregnancy and childbirth Maternal Healthcare and Doulas in China will be of interest to researchers in public health and health policy particularly with an interest in maternal health or Asian studies as well as health practitioners and clinicians who are interested in issues related to women maternity health care childbirth and feminist research in China      Chinese American Literature Since the 1850s Xiao-huang Yin, 2000 This volume an introduction and guide to the field traces the origins and development of a body of literature written in English and in Chinese
