The Best in Children's Books Zena Sutherland,1980-05 Includes indexes Directory of World Cinema: Japan 3 John Berra,2015-01-01 Like its predecessors Directory of World Cinema Japan 3 endeavours to move scholarly criticism of Japanese film out of the academy and into the hands of cinephiles the world over This volume will be warmly welcomed by those with an interest in Japanese cinema that extends beyond its established names to equally remarkable filmmakers who have yet to receive such rigorous attention

That's Enough, Freddy From! Frederick Rennie From,2013-04 In this whimsical understated and wide ranging autobiography author Frederick Rennie From recounts his own life while also providing a kind of eyewitness account of the fortunes of everyday Australians throughout the 20th century and into the new millennium Born a sickly infant From became a cane cutter then a soldier and finally a farmer forester Along the way he led a life filled with drama blood curdling accidents fearsome escapes from flood fire and small town law breaking and even managing to survive three separate theatres of combat during World War II and the Korean War We are left with a sense of how Australian life in decades past was marked by endeavour hard labour and hard times yet was also rich in humanity incident and fun What is notable is that the author has managed to recount the saga of a long life without dwelling on pain noticing boredom or inflicting calumny on anyone Where others might have seen unkindness criminal incompetence even cruelty he remembers only human foibles at worst and kindness at best Above all this book demonstrates how the quintessentially Aussie traits of fortitude humour observation and assessment flow down the generations

Footfalls Echo in the Memory Verner C. Bickley,2009-12-14 The Education Service was a vital arm of the British Colonial Service while the British Council has been paramount in promoting the English language and culture overseas But are both agents of British colonialism and neo colonialism Or are both simply altruistic purveyors of language and culture to a wider world Verner Bickley as an Education Officer in the British Colonial Service and in the British Council provides the answer and shows that educational and cultural values were paramount and important in themselves and through the medium of the near global English language vitally important in both culture and technical training Life in overseas postings was set against a backdrop of turbulent international relations following World War II including service in the Royal Navy in India and Ceylon soon to be become independent Sri Lanka Bickley was Education Officer in Singapore during the tumultuous 1950s at the time of the Malayan Emergency and in the lead up to independence in 1957 which he announced on Radio Malaya His service with the British Council began with a posting to Burma during the premiership of U Nu struggling with ethnic problems and to be ousted by military coup And during his time in Indonesia the British Embassy was burnt to the ground by rioters Later service was in Japan basking in its success as an emerging economic powerhouse This is an essentially warm and human story enlivened especially during the British Council period by a succession of diverse personalities including royalty British and Thai as well as writers like Anthony Burgess Graham Greene and Willis Hall and actors such as Donald Sinden Patrick
