The Way I See It Sybil Woolmore, 2024-02-02 The inspiration for writing poetry came from Sybil's father's story which he wrote after her mother passed Having left home at 13 she knew very little about her parents and initially was so enthralled with his story that she believed it would make a great book but as she started to write found that writing in verse flowed much easier Her siblings were also grateful for the writing of this first poem as they also had no idea of the early part of their father's life From there she found everyday life and happenings around her gave her material to continue writing Now retired and not having a mind cluttered with work it never ceases to amaze her how these stories come to her and just must be written often waking in the night mulling over new poems and having to quickly write lines down before trying to get back to sleep again The local pastor has also tapped into this gift and she is often asked to write a poem to go with a Sunday sermon

Screw Your Perception Kareem A Rashed,2022-08-22 Basically Screw Your Perception is to remind us all that we are one How is our ego getting in the way and stopping us from listening and accepting others just as they are How can we learn to live in love and in relation with another How can we learn and understand one another What if we listened What if we allowed others to be themselves What if we let go What if we were willing to look ourself in the mirror What if we might just be each other s reflection What if we were here to learn to show empathy to love and to accept one another Can we accept others just as they are Can we accept them even when to us what they are saying thinking or doing seems so different from what we are saying thinking or doing The big question Can we deflate our ego and stop trying to change everyone else Maybe it is about changing ourselves Maybe it is all about connection rather than division

Three Lives and Tender Buttons Gertrude Stein,2003-02-04 Three Lives Three short stories comprise Gertrude Stein s first significant work each a psychological portrait of a different woman The Good Anna is a kindly but domineering German servant The Gentle Lena apathetically endures her miserable life until she dies in childbirth Melanctha is a young Black woman learning about sexuality and love Different as they may be all three women are bound by poverty and all three face the restrictions of class race and sex with resignation Tender Buttons Stein spoke of maintaining a continuous present comprised of moments of consciousness independent of time and memory Nowhere is this more clear than in her prose poems Tender Buttons Their repetitive sentences juxtaposition of sounds and simple language connote this continuous presence To live in this state is to begin again and again to use everything Each of the three sections Objects Food and Rooms employs both this repetition and disjointed words to build images Prose poetry at its most abstract expression Tender Buttons is to writing what cubism is to art W G Rogers     Termination of Federal Supervision Over Certain Tribes of Indians United States.
