The Hallowing:

The Hallowing of Logic Simon J.G. Burton, 2012-05-03 While Richard Baxter 1615-91 has been called the chief of English Protestant schoolmen few studies of his theology exist and none of his major systematic work the Methodus Theologiae 1681 Through examining the scriptural and metaphysical foundations of his exemplaristic logic and engaging extensively with his medieval and early modern sources this study presents Baxter's understanding of method as the unfolding of the believer's relation with the Triune God through salvation history revealing his profound debt to Scotist and Nominalist thought In tracing the manifold ramifications of this method it offers a fresh reading of Baxter's soteriology countering the charges of moralism and rationalism often levelled at him and placing his thought within a scholastic paradigm of faith seeking understanding

Hallowed Be Thy Name Jason Goroncy, 2013-03-28 This book fills a noticeable gap in Forsyth studies It provides readers interested in the thought of Forsyth with a way of reading and critiquing his corpus and that in a way that takes due account of and elucidates the theological philosophical and historical locale of his thought Goroncy explores whether the notion of hallowing provides a profitable lens through which to read and evaluate Forsyth's soteriology He suggests that the hallowing of God's name is for Forsyth the way whereby God both justifies himself and claims creation for divine service This book proposes that reading Forsyth's corpus as essentially an exposition of the first petition of the Lord's Prayer is an invitation to better comprehend not only his soteriology but also by extension his broader theological vision and interests
