Educational Linguistics in Practice Francis M. Hult, Kendall A. King, 2011 Reflecting and expanding on Nancy Hornberger's ground breaking contributions to the field of educational linguistics this volume presents new research by leading international scholars and cutting edge syntheses of the fields of bilingual education biliteracy and language policy

The Multiple Faces of Agency, 2008-01-01 This timely edited volume examines the education of children and youth in urban settings and offers compelling alternatives for successfully engaging them in school learning Urban schools serve a large proportion of students who are poor of color and speakers of languages other than English The multiple faces of agency Innovative strategies for effecting change in urban school contexts is a new and significant addition to the literature in urban education The editor of the book and contributing scholars are to be commended for assembling such an exciting collection of innovative research for publication The volume s central message the power of human agency may help transform teaching and learning in urban schools If this happens urban school children and youth who deserve better than they have received to date stand to benefit the most from this work

Understanding Literacy in Its Historical Contexts Harvey J. Graff, Alison Mackinnon, Bengt Sandin, Ian Winchester, 2009-01-10 In this detailed study of the history of universal literacy in Sweden a group of renowned scholars review and explore the possibilities for the wider circulation and broader application of central dimensions of the early literacy studies expounding upon the work of the Swedish Lutheran pastor and pioneering social historian Egil Johansson Working initially with parish registers especially examination registers from northern Sweden Johansson discovered the extraordinary usefulness of these documents to determine how literacy in Sweden occurred well before any other European nation despite the fact that Sweden was industrialized about 100 years later than the European norm Egil Johansson also developed imaginative data analysis techniques that help historians around the world to better picture the complete human cast of the past With the help of numerous contributors Johansson founded a giant database of church records and other information which now can help the understanding of preindustrial society Johansson s work spans over many aspects of literacy and social history and their respective relation to religion and gender

Literacy and Development Brian V. Street, 2002-11-01 Literacy and Development is a collection of case studies of literacy projects around the world The contributors present their in depth studies of everyday uses and meanings of literacy and of the literacy programmes that have been developed to enhance them Arguing that ethnographic research can and should inform literacy policy in developing countries the book extends current theory and itself contributes to policy making and programme building A large cross section of society is covered with chapters on Women s literacy in Pakistan Ghana and Rural Mali literacy in village Iran and an Older Peoples Literacy Project This international collection includes case studies from Peru Pakistan India South Africa Bangladesh Mali Nepal Iran Eritrea Ghana

Multilingual Literacies, Identities and Ideologies Tony Capstick, 2016-10-25 This book explores the language and literacy practices which sustain transnational migration across generations and across traditional boundaries such as school and home The author has conducted extensive fieldwork in Pakistan and the UK to study migration between the two countries Individuals access to the dominant literacies of migration are contrasted with the vernacular practices which migrants take up at home as part of their digital literacies The study explores the blurring of boundaries between home and school as well as the blurring of boundaries between language varieties Tracing access to literacy in this way also shines a light on the literacy mediators migrants turn to for help with English language learning and when trying to access the bureaucratic literacies of migration The study ends by exploring how migrants use all of their language resources not just English to fit into their new homes once they have arrived in the UK

L2 Writing in Secondary Classrooms Luciana C. De Oliveira, Tony Silva, 2013 Second language writers and the teaching of writing at the secondary level have received little attention compared with other skills such as reading Addressing this gap this volume uniquely looks at both adolescent L2 writing and the preparation of secondary teachers to work with this population of students Part I on adolescent L2 writers includes case studies looking at their literacy identities their trajectories in mainstream content area classes and their transition from high school to college Part II looks at academic issues The focus in Part III is L2 writing teacher education Taking a theoretically eclectic approach that can support a variety of pedagogies this book contributes significantly to understanding adolescent second language writers and to educating teachers to address these students specific needs

Talk, Text and Technology Inge Kral, 2012-07-26 Talk Text and Technology is an ethnography of language learning and literacy in remote Indigenous Australia This study traces one Indigenous group from the introduction of alphabetic literacy in the 1930s to the recent arrival of digital literacies and new media This innovative work examines changing social cultural and linguistic practices across the generations and addresses the implications for language and literacy socialisation

Teaching and Researching Writing Ken Hyland, 2015-11-19 This third edition of Teaching and Researching Writing continues to build upon the previous editions work of providing educators and practitioners in applied linguistics with a

clearly written and complete guide to writing research and teaching The text explores both theoretical and conceptual questions grapples with key issues in the field today and demonstrates the dynamic relationship between research and teaching methods and practice This revised third edition has been reorganized to incorporate new topics including discussions of technology identity and error correction as well as new chapters to address the innovative directions the field has taken since the previous edition s publication Boxes throughout including Concepts and Quotes help to both reinforce readers understanding of the topics covered by highlighting key ideas and figures in the field while the updated glossary and resource sections allow readers to further investigate areas of interest This updated edition of Teaching and Researching Writing is the ideal resource for language teachers practitioners and researchers to better understand and apply writing research theories methods and practices

World Yearbook of Education 2003 Jill Bourne,Euan Reid,2003-12-16 The issues raised by the role of language in education are some of the most important and contentious faced by education systems across the globe Language is embedded in the concepts of nationhood and identity and is therefore directly linked to the very social and political fabric of a country In a climate of increasing globalisation development and mobility of populations nations around the world are concerned with the tension between cultivating a sense of cultural and linguistic cohesion and making use of the linguistic diversity that exists in every country and region This book examines the implications and impacts the dilemmas and potential for language education in relation to education systems and wider society Split into three key parts it considers current issues in language education including the role of language in maintaining power and inequalities in encouraging participation and inclusion and in challenging the status quo different approaches to language education around the world the potential for language to provide opportunities for the disadvantaged illustrated by case studies of three cities This recent volume of the internationally respected World Yearbook of Education continues the tradition of offering a wide range of international perspectives from leading commentators on a universal concern The material amassed here will be essential reading for teacher educators education researchers and school leaders across the world

Adult Literacy as Social Practice Uta Papen,2005-09-22 With a radically new perspective on reading writing and mathematics for adults this refreshing and challenging book shows how teachers and curriculum developers have much to gain from understanding the role of literacy in learners lives bringing in their families social networks and jobs Looking at the practicalities of how teachers and students can work with social practice in mind Adult Literacy as Social Practice is particularly focused on how a social theory of literacy and numeracy compares with other theoretical perspectives how to analyze reading and writing in everyday life using the concepts of social literacy as analytical tools and what this tells us about learners teaching needs what is actually happening in adult basic education and how literacy is really being taught professional development With major policy initiatives coming into force this is the essential guide for teachers and curriculum developers through this area offering one stop coverage of the key concepts without the need for finding materials from far scattered sources

Teacher and Librarian Partnerships in Literacy Education in the 21st Century Joron Pihl, Kristin Skinstad van der Kooij, Tone Cecilie Carlsten, 2017-03-22 This volume explores teacher and librarian partnerships in literacy education showing that such partnerships are essential to literacy education in 21st century Teacher and librarian partnerships contribute significantly to the realization of the democratic mandate of the teaching and library profession Partnerships respond to the educational challenges characterized by an unprecedented pace of knowledge development digitalization globalization and extensive transnational migration The contributors reconceptualize literacy education based on teacher and librarian partnerships Studies from Sweden Norway and the U K analyze such partnerships as sociocultural and intercultural practices documenting ways in which teacher and librarian partnerships in literacy education enhance reading literacy learning empowerment and social justice The authors treat literacies as social practices rather than as an autonomous skill working with interdisciplinary perspectives that draw on educational research New Literacy Studies library and information science and interprofessional studies Partnerships facilitate reading for pleasure and reading engagement in work with school subjects and curriculum goals irrespective of socio economic or cultural background or gender The partnerships facilitate work with multimodal literacies and inquiry based learning both of which are essential in the 21st century Equally important the contributors show that the partnerships foster work with the multiple literacies of students and communities and students attachment to the public and school library The contributors also analyze tensions and contradictions in literacy education and in school library policy and practice and attempts to deal with these challenges Teacher and Librarian Partnerships in Literacy Education in the 21st Century brings together leading scholars in educational research and literacy studies including Brian V Street Teresa Cremin Joan Swann and Joron Pihl The volume addresses scholars and is relevant for students teachers librarians and politicians
