

DON QUIXOTE

I. Summary:

A lesser Spanish nobleman from La Mancha by the name Alonso Quixano was almost fifty years old when he lost his mind. He spent most of his time reading fictional books about chivalry and was so obsessed with them that took every word literally and believed them to be all true. Copying the heroes of the books, he decided to become a knight errant in search of glory and adventure to prove his worth and valor. He then found himself a suit of armor, gave himself the title of "Don Quixote" and named his old horse "Rocinante". As for his lady of love, he chose a farm girl and without her even knowing it called her Dulcinea del Toboso. First, Don Quixote arrived at an inn, where he believed to be a castle. He treated prostitutes as noble ladies and asked the innkeeper who he referred to as the lord of the castle, to dub him a knight. At night he stayed up guarding his armor, and when inn workers tried to move it out of the way to water the mules, he beat them up. Eventually, the innkeeper dubbed Don Quixote a knight in a pretend ceremony to get rid of him. Next, he encountered a slave named Andres who was tied to a tree his master and being punished. Don Quixote freed the slave and forced the master to promise to pay him his wages and treat him fairly. A promise that the master broke the moment Don Quixote left. He then ran into some merchants from Toledo, who insulted his imaginary but beloved lady Dulcinea. Enraged by their insults, Don Quixote, attacked them to defend his lady's honor. The merchant beat the old man up and left him by the road to die. Fortunately, his neighbor found him and returned him to his home. When he was unconscious, his niece, his priest, and a local barber burned most of the books in his library and sealed up the room. When Don Quixote gained his consciousness again, they told him that it was all done by a wizard. A few months later, and after getting his strength back, Don Quixote promised his neighbor Sancho Panza to make him a governor if he agreed to be his squire. Sancho, who was a simple farmer, agreed to the offer and snuck away with Don Quixote at dawn. Next, they came across two Benedictine friars who were traveling on the same road with a lady in a carriage. Don Quixote took the friars as captors of the lady and attacked them. An armed guard who was accompanying the party, tried to defend against the attack and a fight broke
