With a Chapter by
Mario Tonti, D.S.W.

In this text, the authors examine the problems of the frail elderly, explicate the practice skills required in addressing these problems, and introduce the auxiliary function model. Primarily intended for social work practitioners and students, other professionals who work closely with the elderly — physicians, nurses, teachers, researchers — also will find the book useful.

Social Work Practice with the Frail Elderly and Their Families Barbara Silverstone, Ann Burack-Weiss, Mario Tonti, 1983 Gerontological Social Work in Small Towns and Rural Communities Lenard W Kaye, Sandra Butler, 2012-10-12 Learn the skills you need to work with geriatric populations in rural areas Gerontological Social Work in Rural Towns and Communities provides a range of intervention and community skills aimed precisely at the needs of rural elders This book fills a gap in the literature by focusing on the specific practice concerns for social workers assisting older adults in rural areas including the aging experience social worker skills professional functions working with special populations and health and long term care concerns This valuable resource will benefit social workers gerontologists allied health professionals in rural areas health and human services administrators and managers Gerontological Social Work in Rural Towns and Communities explores the challenges social workers need to overcome when working with the elder community in rural areas This book s significance to social workers will only increase as more adults choose to live and grow old away from the cities Experts in the field suggest strategies to overcome barriers in planning and providing services such as a longer distance for the elderly to travel to use social service centers a narrower range of available services in the local area increased poverty levels for the elderly a stronger dependency by elderly on family rather than public assistance This book is divided into five sections Rurality and Aging introduces the concept of rurality and examines the demographics of aging from a rural perspective Practice Dimensions of Social Work with Rural Elders includes clinical practice models intervention and advocacy techniques program planning and marketing approaches Special Populations gives attention to four special population groups indigenous elders African American older adults elderly Latinos and disabled elders Special Issues Pertaining to Rural Elders covers five essential issues for rural gerontological social workers health promotion older workers and retirement preparation aging in place specialized housing and ethical practice Training and Policy Recommendations future training and education recommendations for social workers are explored as well as service capacity building the aging network and the future of long term care While a variety of theoretical perspectives are explored in Gerontological Social Work in Rural Towns and Communities the book s empowerment orientation and strengths based approach will enhance your abilities to improve quality of life for elderly individuals in rural communities Each chapter contains a comprehensive review of the literature on the subject it addresses and several chapters include tables and graphs to further establish their revealing empirical findings An appendix provides additional sources to turn to for more information

Gerontological Social Work Supervision Carlton Munson, Ann Burack Weiss, Frances C Brennan, 2014-02-25 This unique book clearly depicts a need for supervision in gerontological social work settings and provides a framework for approaching supervision Grounded in two distinct bodies of literature social work supervision and gerontological social work this important book thoroughly examines present gerontological practice and principles and focuses on the stages and styles of helping and teaching case workers to improve agency efficiency Gerontological Social Work Supervision assumes some gerontological knowledge and experience with aging on the part of the supervisor yet provides an abundance of informative and practical methods to aid agency success rates with their clients The authors discuss the supervisory position as a positive asset in all aspects of case work and management Throughout the chapters the value of a supervisor is compounded whether the supervisor is helping a worker in seeing a broader scope of the field of social work with the elderly providing guidance through gray areas of ethics or teaching practice skills for work with individuals groups or families the need for an involved and prepared case worker supervisor becomes increasingly clear through the theories and scenarios presented Extensive examples and helpful considerations make this an invaluable book for agency supervisors and workers An entire chapter is devoted to providing supervision in the educational arena promoting a greater awareness of gerontological social work in students preparing for the field The appendices are packed with lists of additional works on supervision in social work bibliographies of selected readings in case management entitlement long term care and family caregiving Mental Health and the Elderly Francis J. Turner, 2010-06-15 The demographic shift to a much older population is having a large impact on social work professionals who have traditionally been the primary caretakers of the elderly As more people are living into advanced old age it is becoming increasingly important to understand and treat the wide range of psychological disorders which may affect them rather than simply attributing the disorders to senescence as was frequently done in the past Mental Health and the Elderly A Social Work Perspective is a comprehensive guide to diagnosis and treatment of the range of disorders affecting the elderly New Developments in Home Care Services for the Elderly Lenard W Kaye, 2013-11-19 This anthology responds to the recurring call for quality in home care service provision It presents to agency administrators managers supervisors and front line service providers a set of the most up to date policy program and practice developments in the field Each contributor to New Developments in Home Care Services for the Elderly explores issues of client staff diversity and the challenges associated with working with clients grappling with disabling conditions Contributors in New Developments in Home Care Services for the Elderly explore issues of client staff diversity and the challenges associated with working with clients grappling with various disabling conditions Topics addressed include alternative organizational models in home care the importation of high technology services into the home legal and ethical issues in home health care counseling homebound clients and their families clinical assessment tools and packages case management and the home care client home care entitlements and benefits evaluating and monitoring the effectiveness of in home care marketing home health care services home care service experiences in other countries New Developments in Home Care Services for the elderly covers a continuum of care ranging from housekeeping services to self care education teaching and training services to nursing and medically related services Consequently the information contained within this volume is of immediate relevance to a multidisciplinary audience having both direct field and indirect office service responsibilities in the home care organization Social workers nurses business administrators and public health professionals will find this an invaluable guide for providing effective home care services Ageing with a Lifelong Disability Christine Bigby,2004 This guide provides specialist knowledge about ageing with a disability in the context of the more mainstream knowledge about ageing processes Dr Bigby uses the concept of successful ageing as a framework in which to consider the issues and practicalities for older people with a pre existing disability Teaching Gerontological Social Work ,1999 Confused Minds, Burdened Families ,1990 The Forgotten Aged T.L. Brink,2020-03-12 This helpful book explores mental health issues relating to elders who do not fit into the usual mold for research white married or widowed urban or suburban persons with adult children The Forgotten Aged focuses on those groups of elders often overlooked in gerontological literature elder African Americans rural aged gay and lesbian aged parents of developmentally disabled offspring older developmentally disabled persons themselves and orphan elders those who do not have close family members who can serve as caretakers The book offers how to advice on issues such as outreach intervention residential placement and transition assessment psychotherapy and team building to help readers learn effective ways of helping elderly persons from these various groups With an optimistic tone it explores how more attention and resources combined with flexible modifications of programs and practices can yield favorable results for everyone involved In The Forgotten Aged authors examine a variety of pertinent topics including assessment of dementia and depression in African Americans multidisciplinary team outreach to elderly living in rural areas therapeutic issues with gay and lesbian aged residential transitions for developmentally disabled elderly helping aging parents of developmentally disabled offspring intervention with orphan elderly with Alzheimer s diseaseSocial workers psychologists psychiatrists geriatricians nurses and counselors involved in providing support and care for elderly persons will find The Forgotten Aged a useful guide in their daily work and decisionmaking This book can also serve as an enlightening supplementary text in courses that study aging and the elderly Clinical Social Work Practice with the Elderly Marion L. Beaver,Don Miller,1992 The Lioness in Winter Ann Burack-Weiss,2015-10-13 When she started working with the aged more than forty years ago Ann Burack Weiss began storing the knowledge and skills she thought would help when she got old herself It was not until she hit her mid seventies that she realized she had packed sneakers to climb Mount Everest not anticipating the crevices and chasms that constitute the rocky terrain of old age The professional gerontological and social work literature offered little help so she turned to the late life works of beloved women authors who had bravely climbed the mountain and sent back news from the summit Maya Angelou Colette Simone de Beauvoir Joan Didion Marguerite Duras M F K Fisher Doris Lessing Mary Oliver Adrienne Rich May Sarton and Florida Scott Maxwell were among the many guides she turned to for inspiration In The Lioness in Winter Burack Weiss blends an analysis of key writings from these and other famed women authors with her own wisdom to create an essential companion for older women and those who care for them She fearlessly examines issues such as living with loss finding comfort and joy in unexpected places and facing disability and death This book is filled with powerful passages from women who turned their experiences of aging into art and Burack Weiss ties their words to her own struggles and epiphanies framing their collective observations with key insights from social work practice
