Inequality - the unbeatable challenge Medani P. Bhandari, Shvindina Hanna, 2022-09-01 This edited book presents some unexplored issues of economic inequality including case studies of various countries Inequality is a chronic and divisive factor of society Inequality exists as an integral attribute of human development Communities nations and systems are not evolving at the same speed and rate and thus require different resources in different amounts However the distribution of winnings is also uneven due to the multidimensionality of influencing factors When we talk about inequality it is not just inequality of income or wealth it is first inequality in access to priorities and human needs to shelter to clean water air health care and also to appropriate vaccination systems and assistance security systems and safety guarantees for the future Past financial crises and the current pandemic shock has revealed bugs in the system shaking it and changing our perception of the norms We may have no doubts that inequality is an unsolved problem but now we need to find out is it unbeatable There is still lack of knowledge around how inequality has been grounded throughout human civilization why society is stratified and classified economically politically socially and religiously and why the discrimination due to gender sexual orientation country of origin language differences immigration status caste race and ethnicity This book addresses these issues in a holistic way as well as including case studies of various countries It tries to find out why inequality has been unbeatable and what would be the best policies to overcome this challenge

Hate Crime in Turkey Deniz Ünan Göktan, 2017-06-20 This book examines how hate crime as a contemporary legal concept is introduced and represented in Turkish public discourse The study addresses questions of how effective the hate crime debate in Turkey has been in identifying bias motivated violent incidents and how social institutions perceive hate crimes and influence the related debates instigated by social movement actors First of all the study explores the movement against hate crime in Turkey and argues that hate crime has operated as an umbrella term diverting distinct identity movements into dialogue and collaboration but has also created a partial collective identity Thereafter to grasp the repercussions of the emerging anti hate crime movement in the public discourse the book focuses on the media and parliament Accordingly media and the governing bodies in both direct and indirect ways are shown here to constitute an impediment to the recognition of bias and prejudices
