Societal Decision Making Democratic Ch:

Transparency and Accountability in Science and Politics K. Andersson, 2008-07-10 This book challenges the role of scientists in policy making and the idea of deliberative democracy The author argues that awareness must increase among both politicians and the citizens who elect them We must revitalise the decision making processes in representative democracy The book proposes new institutional structures Societal Decision-making Svein S. Andersen, Tom R. Burns, 1992 This text deals with societal decision making relating to large scale major energy facilities abbreviated hereafter as MEFs hydro power developments nuclear power plants and off shore petroleum projects In Norway as in many other countries national authorities have a major responsibility for the planning financing and construction of such projects Construction of large scale energy facilities is part of industrialization and modernization Civil Society and Nuclear Non-Proliferation Claudia Kissling, 2016-05-23 Since the end of the Cold War globalization has brought new actors to the political arena One of those which has attracted considerable attention in academic research is civil society or NGOs Claudia Kissling addresses the topic of civil society participation in the nuclear non proliferation regime The regime qualifies well for this objective since it features given its characteristics as a treaty regime in the international security field notable legal avenues for civil society participation The study takes on a twofold perspective It addresses the empirical question of whether civil society can contribute to the evolution of regimes in the security field especially when it comes to security cooperation It also questions whether civil society can under certain conditions contribute to the democratic quality of international decision making Here empirical findings are used in order to test normative political theories on the legitimacy and democracy of global institutions Sustainable Development, Humanities, and Social Sciences for Society 5.0 Wongmahesak, Kittisak, Wekke, Ismail Suardi, Suanpang, Pannee, 2024-10-11 In a world where business is increasingly influenced by rapid technological advancements and shifting societal norms the definition of success has undergone a fundamental transformation Profitability once the sole measure of achievement now shares the stage with sustainability as a critical component of business performance As we transition into Society 5.0 a hyper connected era where technology and human values converge redefining success to include sustainability becomes not just desirable but essential Sustainable Development Humanities and Social Sciences for Society 5.0 explores this paradigm shift presenting a forward thinking perspective on the intersection of technological innovation and sustainable business practices This comprehensive volume bridges the gap between emerging technologies and the imperative for businesses to thrive in a way that benefits society and the environment Through a curated collection of insights strategies and case studies the book offers a valuable resource for understanding how to achieve continuous good performance while making a positive impact in the age of Society 5.0 The Group in Society John Gastil, 2009-07-07 The Group in Society meets the challenges of teaching courses on small groups by revealing the full complexity of small groups and their place in society It shows students the value of learning how to carefully study a group's history and context rather than merely learning a fixed set of group participation skills. This text brings together disparate theories and research from communication, social psychology, organizational and managerial studies, and sociology in a way that helps students make sense of a complex body of scholarship on groups. Features examples include the powerful group bonds of the modern terrorist cell, the wired network of groups in the anti-Globalization movement, and the deliberation of a jury in a murder trial. Teaching a sample course schedule. Embedded Systems Framework PowerPoint slides, group project assignments, group project worksheets, and a group project description and contract, and links to useful Web resources such as small group teaching resources and active wikis on small groups. An open access student study site at www.sagepub.com/gastilstudy features e-flashcards, practice quizzes, and other resources to help students enhance their comprehension and improve their grade.

Social Studies and Diversity Education Elizabeth E. Heilman, Ramona Fruja, Matthew Missias, 2010-01-21. This one-of-a-kind resource features ideas from over one hundred of our nation's most thoughtful teacher educators reflecting on their best practices and offering specific strategies through which future teachers learn to teach.

Professional Decision Making in Social Work Brian Taylor, 2010-04-21. Many social workers face daily pressure to make sound decisions in very difficult circumstances, occasionally having to manage impossible expectations. Politicians and the media may spotlight care decisions where a tragedy or complaint occurs. In this complex arena of conflicting demands and considerations from the public, the client, the family, the organisation, the professional needs a robust and yet flexible framework to inform practice decisions. This book is written to help social work practitioners and students make professional decisions with clients from exercising statutory powers and duties to protect children from abuse to making decisions about risk.

Promoting Democracy Through Civil Society Kristi Raik, 2006. Constructing Global Civil Society D. Chandler, 2004-09-13. Global Civil Society is a crucial concept in International Relations today, used as both a description of new mechanisms of non-state actor and NGO engagement in international policy making and as a normative political project of international change. David Chandler critically investigates the claims made by the advocates of global civil society, analyzing the limits of the concept as a way of describing actual policy processes and the political dynamics behind the search for an international source of collective ethical values and social change.

The Renewal of Nuclear Power in Finland M. Kojo, T. Litmanen, 2015-12-04. In 2002, the Finnish Parliament decided to permit further construction of nuclear power after decades of long societal struggle. This book analyzes the major phases of the decision-making process. It is an excellent guide to understanding energy and climate policy in Finland and thus the main ideas behind the renewal of nuclear power in Europe.

Research

Methods in the Social and Health Sciences Ted Palys, Chris Atchison, 2021-02-05 Research Methods in the Social and Health Sciences Research Decisions by Ted Palys and Chris Atchison gives students a thorough thoughtful and highly readable introduction to the entire research process from start to finish From its underlying premise that your research questions and objectives rather than any specific method should guide your research this book discusses each step of the research process from limiting the scope of a literature review to navigating ethical considerations to deciding which methods are best suited for finding answers to specific research questions to how to analyze data and present findings Readers are encouraged to think deeply about each step of the research process The book promotes this deliberation by discussing the strengths and limitations of different methods and Throughout the process the authors provide many examples from their own and student research sharing insights for research decisions arising from that experience Readers will develop the skills to create solid research questions perform literature reviews identify appropriate data sources and methods conduct research analyze and interpret data and translate the resulting knowledge generated from the research process to a wider audience all core parts of the research process by developing their knowledge and creating confidence in their own decision making skills After explaining the unique and often complementary strengths of qualitative and quantitative methods students focus on what methods are best suited for finding answers to the research questions that interest them Major types of research including experiments case studies surveys quasi experiments ethnographies focus groups participatory action research and archival studies all receive significant coverage The text illustrates how these methods are enhanced by integrating them with 21st century technologies and combining them in mixed methods projects Chapters on constructing a research proposal and disseminating research bookend the process with concrete steps in between to support students designing their own original research projects Study questions at the end of each chapter encourage students to think critically about the research process and how the choices a researcher makes will broaden or constrain what they can find By the end of the text social and health science students will feel confident in undertaking ethical and thoughtful research Cost-Benefit Analysis and the Theory of Fuzzy Decisions Kofi Kissi Dompere, 2013-03-20

Criticism is the habitus of the contemplative intellect whereby we try to recognize with probability the genuine quality of a literary work by using appropriate aids and rules In so doing certain general and particular points must be considered The art of interpretation or hermeneutics is the habitus of the contemplative intellect of probing into the sense of somewhat special text by using logical rules and suitable means Note Hermeneutics differs from criticism as the part does from the whole Antonius Gvilielmus Amo Afer 1727 There is no such thing as absolute truth At best it is a subjective criterion but one based upon valuation Unfortunately too many people place their fate in the hands of subjective without properly evaluating it Arnold A Kaufmann and Madan M Gupta The development of cost benefit analysis and the theory of fuzzy decision was divided into two inter dependent structures of identification and measurement theory on one hand and fuzzy value theory on the other

Each of them has sub theories that constitute a complete logical system Engineering for Extremes Mark G. Stewart, David V. Rosowsky, 2021-12-16 The volume explains how risk and decision making analytics can be applied to the wicked problem of protecting infrastructure and society from extreme events There is increasing research that takes into account the risks associated with the timing and severity of extreme events in engineering to reduce the vulnerability or increase the resiliency of infrastructure Engineering for extremes is defined as measures taken to reduce the vulnerability or increase the resiliency of built infrastructure to climate change hurricanes storms floods earthquakes heat waves fires and malevolent and abnormal events that include terrorism gas explosions vehicle impact and vehicle overload The book introduces the key concepts needed to assess the economic and social well being risks costs and benefits of infrastructure to extreme events This includes hazard modelling likelihood and severity infrastructure vulnerability resilience or exposure likelihood and extent of damage social and economic loss models risk reduction from protective measures and decision theory cost benefit and utility analyses Case studies authored by experts from around the world describe the practical aspects of risk assessment when deciding on the most cost efficient measures to reduce infrastructure vulnerability to extreme events for housing buildings bridges roads tunnels pipelines and electricity infrastructure in the developed and developing worlds Islam, Democracy and Dialogue in Turkey Bora Kanra, 2016-05-06 Most theorists of deliberative democracy treat deliberation as a procedure in decision making This approach neglects an important phase oriented not so much to decision making but to social learning and understanding Combining deliberative theory with research from social psychology Bora Kanra has developed an innovative critique and synthesis by allocating social learning its own formal sphere For deliberative democracy to produce better outcomes decision making needs to be reinforced by opportunities for social learning Stressing the importance of the development of democratic dialogue in divided societies Kanra tests his claims of a new deliberative framework by analyzing interaction between Islamic and secular discourses in the Turkish public sphere This in depth analysis of converging and diverging political beliefs and traditions between seculars and Islamists emphasizes the importance of social learning in a sharply divided society A groundbreaking and illuminating insight into the prospects for democratic development in Turkey Islam Democracy and Dialogue in Turkey reveals an emerging dynamic in Turkish politics representing a new opening in political practice Governance and European Civil Society Acar Kutay, 2014-02-24 This book provides a critical analysis of the European Union s approach to governance focusing on the way in which civil society is incorporated within the EU decision making process and arguing that it is not conducive to the democratisation of EU governance Using a governmentality approach Kutay demonstrates that civic actors are not incorporated into EU decision making processes as they are rather they are formed manipulated and guided by political programming The author explains how this acts to prescribe and construct particular types of subjectivities thereby limiting and constraining the types of participation that might emerge as part of European civil society and the process of political participation Governance and

European Civil Society will be of interest to students and scholars of European Union politics global governance civil society and democracy Central and East European studies and political and international theory Civil Society and Activism in Europe William A. Maloney, Jan W. Van Deth, 2010-04-05 This book examines the role of civil society organizations in several advanced European democracies Germany the Netherlands Spain Switzerland and the United Kingdom Specifically the book focuses on how voluntary organizations contribute to civic and democratic health and assesses the impact of different organizational types on social capital Building on Citizenship and Involvement in European Democracies and Social Capital and Associations in Europe 2007 this volume seeks to widen and deepen the analysis by introducing new data on activists and combining it with the organizational data and the population data It evaluates the impact of the organizational context on individual activity profiles and attitudes and values of activists and provides a unique assessment on the contribution that voluntary associations make to civil and democratic society Part One deals with the consequences of associational involvement for several attitudinal and behavioural orientations and Part Two expands the scope of the effects of voluntary associations towards European attitudes This book is essential reading for students and scholars of civil society democracy political participation politics and sociology Young People as Agents of Sustainable Society Päivi Honkatukia, Tiina Rättilä, 2023-06-16 This book analyses young people's societal participation as a central dimension of their well being and as vitally important to secure the sustainable future of humankind and the whole eco social system It develops a theoretical framework for analysing youth participation holistically embedded in its everyday context and as a relational phenomenon underpinned by universal human needs It introduces innovative methodological approaches to study youth engagements in society This book will appeal to scholars and students of youth studies sociology sustainable development youth participation and education It also offers new knowledge and theoretical readings for policy experts on youth and sustainable development as well as for NGOs working with youth The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Activism in Hard Times in Central and Eastern Europe Patrice C. McMahon, Paula M. Pickering, Dorota Pietrzyk-Reeves, 2024-06-07 Activism in Hard Times in Central and Eastern Europe elevates the voices of civic activists from Central and Eastern Europe CEE and analyzes a wealth of information to generate new insights into how activism in the region manages to be vibrant diverse and consequential Because of these countries unique historical trajectory CEE activists have in important ways leapfrogged their counterparts in the West Giving special attention to activists in Bosnia and Herzegovina BiH Hungary Poland Russia and Ukraine the book focuses on responses to the recent hard times the shrinking of public space for civil society democratic backsliding polarization and Russia's war in Ukraine The contributors contend that CEE activists provide important lessons for others confronting similar challenges around the world The book is well suited for a variety of undergraduate and graduate courses such as comparative politics human rights global governance

social movements Central and East European politics and contemporary world politics This timely and readable book co created by academics and activists and written in a conversational tone will also be of interest to the interested public and practitioners The book encourages readers to think differently about the role of civil society and activism as well as about how new tools and polarizing dynamics affect activism in this region Chapters 2 3 6 and 8 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
