Terror Code:

Indictment of Terror Vladimir Vasil'evich Ustinov,2003 Traces of Terror Victoria Sentas,2014 Terror's Triumph William Meier,2024-11-19 The idea of modern terrorism and the practice of terrorist violence emerged in Britain's first colony Ireland before spreading through imperial networks to South and East Asia to Africa and to the Middle East Thus empire not only birthed terror but also made it global And the sheer spread diversity and longevity of that empire produced multiple stages in the evolution of terrorism from rural intimidation to urban guerilla warfare to homegrown radicalism Indeed today's global terror challenges the ethics of counter terrorism the threats of Islamist and international terrorism and the rise of homegrown right wing extremism all have roots in colonialism Russian Views on Countering Terrorism During Eight Years of Dialogue Russian Academy of Sciences,National Research Council,Policy and Global Affairs,Development, Security, and Cooperation,Office for Central Europe and Eurasia,2009-06-28 Few countries have endured as many attacks of terrorism during the past two decades as has Russia From bombings on the streets of a number of cities to the disruption of pipelines in Dagestan to the taking of hundreds of hostages at a cultural center in Moscow and at a school in Beslan the Russian government has responded to many political and technical challenges to protect the population The measures that have been undertaken to reduce vulnerabilities to terrorist attacks and to mitigate the consequences of attacks have been of widespread interest in many other countries as well In June 1999 the Presidents of the National Academy of Sciences and the Russian Academy of Sciences initiated an inter academy program to jointly address common interests in the field of counter terrorism Four workshops were held from 2001 to 2007 and additional consultations were undertaken prior to and after the series of workshops This report includes 35 of the Russian presentations during the workshop series Collectively they provide a broad overview of activities that have been supported by Russian institutions Fighting Terrorism through Multilevel Criminal Legislation Erling Johannes Husabø,Ingvild Bruce,2009-09-04 This book highlights the criminal framework legislation developed by the UN Security Council and the EU in the aftermath of the terrorist attacks in the USA in 2001 and studies the implementation of these rules in six European legal orders It contains a thorough analysis of the concept of terrorist offences including complex issues such as actions by armed forces and resistance movements It also explores the broad criminalisation of preparatory acts including the participation in terrorist groups and discusses the extended application of national law to offences committed abroad More generally the book sheds light on the interplay between global regional and national regulation and contributes to a better understanding of national differences in the field of criminal law Contemporary Wars and Conflicts over Land and Water in Africa Carlson Anyangwe,2022-08-08 Contemporary Wars and Conflicts over Land and Water in Africa highlights Africa's tragedy of endless conflicts Rich in case studies it examines violent conflicts and Africa's approaches to conflict resolution The case studies show that Africa continues to be a chronically unstable space tormented especially by frequent and devastating civil wars of which ethnicity religion and bad governance are some of the root causes These conflicts have occasioned massive human rights abuses arrested development reversed or slowed economic growth created a vicious circle of instability and hunger and exacerbated levels of poverty and disease in the continent In the final part of this book Carlson Anyangwe considers indigenous mechanisms for settling disputes post conflict transitional justice systems and the African Union conflict resolution mechanism that relies as it does on the United Nations peace and security framework and the peace and security functions of the African regional economic organizations

Terrorism and the Law Yonah Alexander, Edgar Brenner, 2021-10-01 The internationalization and brutalization of modern terrorism makes it very clear that we have entered into an age of super and cyber terrorism with its serious implications for national regional and global security concerns The legal response to this challenge is critical This volume focuses on a broad range of relevant topics e g definitions human rights ethnic racial and religious intolerance and violence and selected legislation treaties and cases The materials incorporated in this publication is selected specifically from proceedings of several international seminars held in Washington DC as well as the legal research conducted at the Inter University Center for Legal Studies International Law Institute and the Inter University Center for Terrorism Studies administered by the Potomac Institute for Policy Studies Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint

the Arab World Fatemah Alzubairi, 2019-01-10 The threat of personal harm and destruction from terrorist attacks is nowhere near as great as in Arab nations However are counter terrorism laws in the Arab world formulated and enforced to protect or oppress Colonialism Neo Colonialism and Anti Terrorism Law in the Arab World examines the relationship between Western influence and counter terrorism law focusing on the Arab world which is on the one hand a hostile producer of terrorist organizations and on the other a leader in countering terrorism With case studies of Egypt and Tunisia Alzubairi traces the colonial roots of the use of coercion and extra legal measures to protect the ruling order which are now justified in both the West and the Arab world in the name of counter terrorism Colonialism Neo Colonialism and Anti Terrorism Law in the Arab World provides important lessons for counter terrorism not just in these countries but also elsewhere in the world New York Magazine , 1985-05-27 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Ensuring Respect for International Humanitarian Law Eve Massingham, Annabel McConnachie, 2020-07-20 This book explores the nature and scope of the provision requiring States to ensure respect for international humanitarian law IHL contained within Common Article 1 of the 1949 Geneva Conventions It examines the interpretation and application of this provision in a range of contexts both thematic and country specific Accepting the clearly articulated notion of respect for IHL it builds on the existing literature studying the meaning of ensure respect and outlines an understanding of the concept in situations such as enacting implementing legislation diplomatic interactions regulating private actors targeting detaining persons under IHL in non international armed conflict protecting civilians including internally displaced populations and prosecuting war crimes It also considers topical issues such as counter terrorism and foreign fighting The book will be a valuable resource for practitioners academics and researchers It provides much needed practical reflection for States as to what ensuring respect entails so that governments are able to address these obligations Providing for Consideration of H.R. 3199, USA PATRIOT and Terrorism Prevention Reauthorization Act of 2005 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Rules, 2005 Terrorism and International Law Maurice Flory, Rosalyn Higgins, 2002-05-03 The proliferation in terrorist activity has provoked an increase in the body of law both at national and international level which has sought to counter and prevent it The bodies involved in this process range from the UN Security Council to government legislatures This book is the first to address in one volume the wide variety of responses to terrorism as they exist in both international and domestic contexts It also represents the first ever comprehensive collection of documents referring to terrorism which are to be found in the laws of the UK and France as well as in international law Terrorism and International Law comprises contributions by thirteen well known authorities in the areas of international French and UK law and is divided into four main sections international cooperation against terrorism the French and British responses to terrorism the limits of state action and a documentary supplement The contributors have sought to show how international and domestic law can be used together to combat the multi faceted problems which terrorism raises The issue of human rights is also discussed with particular reference to the jurisprudence of the European Commission and Court of Human Rights The fourth documentary section of the book provides coverage of international treaties UN resolutions UK and French legislation case law and official statements relating to terrorism This book provides an invaluable source of commentary and reference material in the area of terrorism and international and domestic law which will be useful for practitioners diplomats students and teachers

Internal Security Services in Liberalizing States Joseph L. Derdzinski, 2016-05-23 Among the states that have moved from authoritarianism in the past 15 years most have not moved beyond the mere procedures of democracy They remain entrenched in a grey area in which neither authoritarian nor democratic governance has been established where incomplete transitions to democracy remain the procedural norm Internal Security Services in Liberalizing States is an excellent scholarly resource focusing on democracy and its non democratic institutions in an era of stalled liberalization It provides a comparative account of the internal security situations of Morocco and Indonesia and makes a significant contribution to the fields of comparative politics including comparative democratization intelligence and politics international security and terrorism as well as to courses on Morocco the Maghreb and the Middle East Islam and Indonesia and Asia The volume covers a considerable range of themes and is a thought provoking resource for those who recognize the importance of incorporating major institutional actors in the course of political liberalization

The Spectre of Islamic Terrorism: Comparative Insights Hussein Solomon, 2024-11-15 This book presents the result of an innovative challenge to create a systematic literature overview driven by machine generated content Questions and related keywords were prepared for the machine to query discover collate and structure by Artificial Intelligence AI clustering The AI based approach seemed especially suitable to provide an innovative perspective as the topics are indeed both complex interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary for example climate planetary and evolution sciences Springer Nature has published much on these topics in its journals over the years so the challenge was for the machine to identify the most relevant content and present it in a structured way that the reader would find useful The automatically generated literature summaries in this book are intended as a springboard to further discoverability They are particularly useful to readers with limited time looking to learn more about the subject quickly and especially if they are new to the topics Springer Nature seeks to support anyone who needs a fast and effective start in their content discovery journey from the undergraduate student exploring interdisciplinary content to Master or PhD thesis developing research questions to the practitioner seeking support materials this book can serve as an inspiration to name a few examples It is important to us as a publisher to make the advances in technology easily accessible to our authors and find new ways of AI based author services that allow human machine interaction to generate
