Chamber of Commerce, 190? The Death and Life of Monterey Bay Stephen R Palumbi, Carolyn Sotka, 2011-01-26 The Death and Life of Monterey Bay is the biography of a place but also of the residents who reclaimed it Monterey is thriving because of an eccentric mayor who wasn't afraid to use pistols axes or the force of law to protect her coasts It is because of fishermen who love their livelihood scientists who are fascinated by the sea's mysteries and philanthropists and community leaders willing to invest in a world class aquarium The shores of Monterey Bay revived because of human passion passion that enlivens every page of this hopeful book Monterey Peninsula's Sporting Heritage John W. Frost, 2007 Over the first half of the 20th century the Monterey Peninsula produced an exceptional number of outstanding athletes a few of whom earned widespread recognition They were the offspring of Sicilian fishermen of contract laborers from Spain and of Japanese abalone divers and some were from families that had been here for generations and produced dynasties of sports figures Behind it all lay two expanding and often conflicting peninsula industries sardine fishing in Monterey and the recreational empire of Del Monte Properties Secret Monterey: A Guide to the Weird, Wonderful, and Obscure David Laws, 2022-04-20 Did Sir Francis Drake really claim Monterey for Queen Elizabeth What does it take to win the world's worst car show Why did the new nation of Argentina attack the port of Monterey Monterey County is known nationwide for its agricultural bounty a bay bursting with marine life world famous golf courses annual displays of automobile extravagance and Big Sur one of the top ten scenic road trips in the nation but what about the stories and places that don't appear in traditional travel guides Secret Monterey A Guide to the Weird Wonderful and Obscure reveals the unexpected and little known stories behind major attractions as well as numerous other spots replete with mystery and intrigue Did General Sherman really jilt the beautiful Senorita Bonifacio Why did activists decapitate a Catholic saint canonized in the US When will the next big one strike along one of the world's most closely observed earthquake faults Local author travel writer and historian David Laws answers these questions and introduces you to the other side of Monterey County a trove of unexpected and unique places just waiting to be explored Storied Land John Walton, 2003-12 John Walton never writes predictable books and Monterey California is not a predictable place the pairing is perfect Although rooted in Monterey this book explores how people in general construct historical narratives Storied Land is as thought provoking a discussion of public history and what it means to tell stories about the past as anything that I have read Richard White author of Remembering Ahanagan A History of Stories With deep research shrewd analysis and vivid writing John Walton reveals how we live in a web of competing stories that connect future and present to a contested past In recovering the particular riches of Monterey's literally storied past Walton finds universal experiences of labor resistance loss and silencing His own masterful storytelling lets us develop a fuller more humane tie to the people of our past Alan Taylor author of the Pulitzer Prize winning William Cooper's Town Power and Persuasion on the Frontier of the Early American Republic In the borderlands between archived event and public memory John Walton has found a pathway to understanding the process whereby a community remembers forgets denies affirms or otherwise structures or re structures its understanding of itself Excavating a region and a city important to Native American Spanish Mexican and American California A Storied Land makes a welcomed contribution to California studies and the larger history and sociology of place Kevin Starr author of Inventing the Dream California Through the Progressive Era Once again John Walton has turned the facts about California into a compelling narrative and a profound meditation on the nature of history and collective memory Howard Becker author of Art Worlds Charter of Monterey,
