That Most Distressful Nation The Taming Of The American Irish:

That Most Distressful Nation Andrew M. Greeley, 1972 The New York Irish Ronald H. Bayor, Timothy Meagher, 1997-09-30 As one of the country's oldest ethnic groups the Irish have played a vital part in its history New York has been both port of entry and home to the Irish for three centuries This joint project of the Irish Institute and the New York Irish History Roundtable offers a fresh perspective on an immigrant people's encounter with the famed metropolis 37 illustrations Shopping for Identity Marilyn Halter, 2007-12-18 In America today you can connect to your ethnic heritage in dozens of ways or adopt an identity just for an evening Our society is not a melting pot but a salad bar a bazaar in which the purveyors of goods and services spend close to 2 billion a year marketing the foods clothing objects vacations and events that help people express their and others ethnic identities This is a huge business whose target groups are the hyphenated Americans in other words all of us As immigrant groups gain economic security they tend to reinforce not relinquish their ethnic identification Marilyn Halter demonstrates that to a great extent they do it by shopping And their purchasing power is enormous How has the marketplace responded to this hunger Instantly and wholeheartedly tweaking old products and inventing new ones launching new brands in supermarkets new music groups vacation itineraries language courses toys greeting cards et cetera This nexus of business and ethnicity is already seen as the hottest consumer development of this decade and Halter is uniquely qualified to describe its origins the exponential growth of products and advertising and the phenomenal sales of items from salsa to Chieftains CDs She addresses her subject with an abundance of anecdotal evidence telling examples of ethnic marketing and interviews with entrepreneurs many of them immigrants who are vigorously seizing the opportunities offered by the business of ethnicity Shopping for Identity is provocative intriguing and farseeing illuminating an important aspect of our contemporary way of life while validating the yearning we all feel for connection to our roots Margaret Fuller's New York Journalism Margaret Fuller, 1995 In this book Catherine C Mitchell combines a substantial biographical essay with a generous selection of Fuller's columns on topics such as prison and asylum reform abolitionism and woman's rights Mitchell's essay puts special emphasis on the Tribune of the 1840s its staff its readership the nature and impact of its news coverage and editorial viewpoint its place in the competitive world of New York journalism and so provides an invaluable context for understanding Fuller's duties at the newspaper The selections from Fuller's Tribune writings include much material that has not been previously reprinted or that has not appeared in other twentieth century collections of Fuller's work Mending Bodies, Saving Souls Guenter B. Risse, 1999-04-15 This is a brilliant original and broadly defined history of the hospital drawing extensively on narratives written by patients and caregivers to give vivid pictures of hospital life at key stages in the development of the institution Age Through Ethnic Lenses Laura Katz Olson, 2001 The book covers aged care for the following groups of elderly people Asians Chinese Japanese Vietnamese Latinos Mexicans Puerto Ricans Africans Native Americans religious groups Mormons Amish Jewish Arab Europeans Polish

Miracles and Sacrilege is the story of the epochal conflict between censorship and freedom in film recounted through an in depth analysis of the U S Supreme Court s decision striking down a government ban on Roberto Rossellini s film The Miracle 1950 In this extraordinary case the Court ultimately chose to abandon its own longstanding determination that film comprised a mere business unworthy of free speech rights declaring for the first time that the First Amendment barred government from banning any film as sacrilegious Using legal briefs affidavits and other court records as well as letters memoranda and other archival materials to elucidate what was at issue in the case William Bruce Johnson also analyzes the social cultural and religious elements that form the background of this complex and hard fought controversy focusing particularly on the fundamental role played by the Catholic Church in the history of film censorship Tracing the development of the Church in the United States Johnson discusses the reasons it found The Miracle sacrilegious and how it attained the power to persuade civil authorities to ban it The Court s decision was not only a milestone in the law of church state relations but it paved the way for a succession of later decisions which gradually established a firm legal basis for freedom of expression in the arts The Promise Fulfilled Odd Sverre Lovoll, 1998 The New Americans Michael Barone, 2012-02-06 Many Americans feel swamped by immigrants with alien cultures languages and customs apparently flooding into our country Falling into Grace: the Fiction of Andrew Greeley R. W. Carstens, 2008-10-07 Falling into Grace is a study of Andrew Greeley s fiction and the message behind his words revealing many timeless political and theological ideas Professor R W Carstens shares the findings of his deep exploration into Greeley s novels as evidence of a set of ancient values and key political ideas that are needed today more than ever As a great storyteller Greeley s message is significant that grace sustains us unites us comforts us and sometimes overwhelms us but it is also evidence of our freedom Carstens careful examination into the deeper meaning behind the stories demonstrates that Greeley s characters and the world in which they live portray life as acts of faith hope and love and prove that God is alive and well in the hearts of many in the world As Carstens discusses Greeley s imagination and his political and theological concepts he develops his own theories about how these ideas can be applied in today s world by creating freedom limiting authority and building communities where people are united by common goals In the end Carstens study demonstrates that Greeley s fiction shows us a way to go home to the images that appeal to the best in us and therefore tell us what might be
