The New York Times Book Review ,1974-10

New Religions and the Theological Imagination in America Mary Farrell Bednarowski, 1989-11-22 Bednarowski is especially good at elucidating the theological daring of these new American religions She demonstrates in a very few pages how theology and group adherence made the individual count a configuration simultaneously American un American and important Jon Butler The cultural confrontation with these new religions is very real and usually very misinformed Bednarowski has gone to great lengths to dispel the ignorance The Christian Century A groundbreaking study Syzygy Journal of Alternative Religion and Culture Organized as a series of theological conversations about ultimate questions this book offers a guide to the answers these six religions offer Drawing heavily on sources from the movements themselves it presents a balanced comparative account of the emerging theological systems of America s new religions

Portable Prose Jarrad Cogle, N. Cyril Fischer, Lydia Saleh Rofail, Vanessa Smith, 2018-11-09 Portable Prose The Novel and the Everyday examines the novel as a privileged site for representing the everyday as well as a physical object that occupies public and private space This collection interrogates the relationships between these differing aspects of the novel's existence negotiating the boundaries between the material world subjective experience and strategies of representation This collection offers a wide array of innovative novelistic explorations with a focus ranging from nineteenth century fiction to contemporary literary theory and explores the portability of novels as both physical things and virtual hermeneutic devices While mimetic qualities of prose remain an integral consideration for literary interpretation this collection argues for more diverse frameworks ones that see aesthetic components of the novel in close connection with reading practices shared structures of feeling and the corporeal In this capacity this volume will argue for readings of texts that consider the capacity for literary culture to move through the world but also to make it or re make it new
