The Politics and Power of Bob Dylan's Live Performances Erin C. Callahan,Court Carney,2023-11-17 Ephemeral by nature the concert setlist is a rich if underexplored text for scholarly research How an artist curates a show is a significant aspect of any concert s appeal Through the placement of songs variations in order or the omission of material Bob Dylan s setlists form a meta narrative speaking to the power and significance of his music These essays use the setlists from concerts throughout Dylan s career to study his approach to his material from the 1960s to the 2020s These chapters from various disciplinary perspectives illustrate how the concert setlist can be used as a source to explore many aspects of Dylan s public life Finally this collection provides a new method to examine other musicians across genres with an interdisciplinary approach to setlists and the selectivity of performance Unique in its approach and wide ranging scholarly methodology this book deepens our understanding of Bob Dylan the performer Feeling the Future at Christian End-Time Performances Jill C. Stevenson,2022-02-01 The End is always near The Apocalypse has sparked imaginations for millennia while in more recent times highly publicized predictions have thrust End Time theology briefly into the spotlight In the 21st century fictional depictions of various apocalyptic scenarios are found in an endless stream of films TV shows and novels while real world media coverage of global issues including climate change and the migrant crisis often features an apocalyptic tone Feeling the Future at Christian End Time Performances explores this prevalent human desire to envision the End by analyzing how various live End Time performances allow people to live in and through future time The book's main focus is contemporary Christian End Time performances and how they theatrically construct encounters with future time not just images or ideas of a future but viscerally and immediately real experiences of future time Author Jill Stevenson's examples are Hell Houses and Judgement Houses Rapture House a similarly styled walk through drama in North Carolina Hell's Gates an outdoor reality drama in Dawsonville Georgia Ark Encounter a full size recreation of Noah's Ark and Tribulation Trail an immersive thirteen scene drama ministry based on the Book of Revelation The book's coda considers similarities between these Christian performances and secular survivalist prepper events especially with respect to constructions of and language about time In doing so the author situates these performances within a larger tradition that challenges traditional secular sacred distinctions and illuminates how the End Times has been employed in our current social and political moment Fictions of

Integration Naomi Lesley, 2017-03-03 This book examines how children's and young adult literature addresses and interrogates the legacies of American school desegregation Such literature narrates not only the famous battles to implement desegregation in the South in places like Little Rock Arkansas but also more insidious and less visible legacies such as re-segregation within schools through the mechanism of disability diagnosis Novelizations of children's experiences with school desegregation comment upon the politics of getting African American children access to white schools but more than this as school stories they also comment upon how structural racism operates in the classroom and mutates over the course of decades through the pedagogical practices depicted in literature for young readers Lesley combines approaches from critical race theory disability studies and educational philosophy in order to investigate how the educational market simultaneously constrains how racism in schools can be presented to young readers and also provides channels for radical critiques of pedagogy and visions of alternative systems The volume examines a range of titles from novels that directly engage the Brown v Board of Education decision such as Sharon Draper's Fire From the Rock and Dorothy Sterling's Mary Jane to novels that engage less obvious legacies of desegregation such as Cynthia Voigt's Dacey's Song Sharon Flake's Pinned Virginia Hamilton's The Planet of Junior Brown and Louis Sachar's Holes This book will be of interest to scholars of American studies children's literature and educational philosophy and history Disability, Space, Architecture: A Reader Jos

Boys, 2017-02-17 Disability Space Architecture: A Reader takes a groundbreaking approach to exploring the interconnections between disability architecture and cities The contributions come from architecture geography anthropology health studies English language and literature rhetoric and composition art history disability studies and disability arts and cover personal theoretical and innovative ideas and work Richer approaches to disability beyond regulation and design guidance remain fragmented and difficult to find for architectural and built environment students educators and professionals By bringing together in one place some seminal texts and projects as well as newly commissioned writings readers can engage with disability in unexpected and exciting ways that can vibrantly inform their understandings of architecture and urban design

Most crucially Disability Space Architecture A Reader opens up not just disability but also ability dis ability as a means of refusing the normalisation of only particular kinds of bodies in the design of built space It reveals how our everyday social attitudes and practices about people objects and spaces can be better understood through the lens of disability and it suggests how thinking differently about dis ability can enable innovative and new kinds of critical and creative architectural and urban design education and practice
