Helping Others

www.Engdic.org

In every town, in every place,
There are hands of grace, hands of grace.

Hands that help without a pause,
Hands that champion a noble cause.

They lift, they cook, they mend, they build,
Never tired, never stilled.

Hands of doctors, hands of maids,
They're the foundation where hope is laid.

In these hands, the world finds rest,
In these hands, we find our best.
Next time you see such hands divine,
Remember yours can also shine.

The Manor House: The Hand in the Dark and Other Poems Ada Cambridge, 2020-09-28 AN old house crumbling half away all barnacled and lichen grown Of saddest mellowest softest grey with a grand history of its own Grand with the work and strife and tears of more than half a thousand years Such delicate tender russet tones of colour on its gables slept With streaks of gold betwixt the stones where wind sown flowers and mosses crept Wild grasses waved in sun and shade o'er terrace slab and balustrade Around the clustered chimneys clung the ivy's wreathed and braided threads And dappled lights and shadows flung across the sombre browns and reds Where'er the graver's hand had been it spread its tendrils bright and green Far stretching branches shadowed deep the blazoned windows and broad eaves And rocked the faithful rooks asleep and strewn the terraces with leaves A broken dial marked the hours amid damp lawns and garden bowers An old house silent sad forlorn yet proud and stately to the last Of all its power and splendour shorn but rich with memories of the past And pitying from its own decay the gilded piles of yesterday Pitying the new race that passed by with slighting note of its grey walls And entertaining tenderly the shades of dead knights in its halls Whose blood that soaked these hallowed sods came down from Scandinavian gods I saw it first in summer time The warm air hummed and buzzed with bees Where now the pale green hop vines climb about the sere trunks of the trees And waves of roses on the ground scented the tangled glades around Some long fern plumes drooped there below the heaven above was still and blue Just here between the gloom and glow a cedar and an aged yew Parted their dusky arms to let the glory fall on Margaret She leaned on that old balustrade her white dress tinged with golden air Her small hands loosely clasped and laid amongst the moss and maidenhair I watched her hearing as I stood a turtle cooing in the wood Hearing a mavis far away piping his dreamy interludes While gusts of soft wind sweet with hay swept through those garden solitudes And thinking she was lovelier even than my young ideal love had been Tall with that subtle sensitive grace which made so plainly manifest That she was born of noble race a cool hushed presence bringing rest Of one who felt and understood the dignity of womanhood Tall with a slow proud step and air with skin half marble and half milk With twisted coils of raven hair blue tinged and fine and soft as silk With haughty clear cut chin and cheek and broad brows exquisitely Greek With still calm mouth whose dreamy smile possessed me like a haunting pain So rare so sweet so free from guile with that slight accent of disdain With level liquid tones that fell like chimings of a vesper bell With large grave stag eyes soft yet keen with slumbering passion hazel brown Long lashed and dark whose limpid sheen my thirsty spirit swallowed down O poor pale words wherewith to paint my queen my goddess and my saint     The Hand in the Dark and Other Poems ,1913     The Hand in the Dark, and Other Poems Ada Cambridge,1913     The Chapbook ,1920     Christian Mysticism and Australian Poetry Toby Davidson, Australian poetry is popularly conceived as a tradition founded by the wry secular and stoic strains of its late nineteenth century bush balladeers Adam Lindsay Gordon Henry Lawson and Banjo Paterson consolidated into a land based vigour in publications such as the Bulletin Yet this popular conception relies on not actually consulting the poetry itself which for well over one hundred and fifty years has been cerebral introspective feminine and highly even experimentally religious This book casts Australian poetry in a new light by showing how Australian Christian mystical poetics can be found in every era of Australian letters how literary hostilities towards women poets eroticism and contemplation served to stifle a critical appreciation of mystical poetics until recent decades and how in the twentieth century one Australian Christian mystical poet began to influence another and share their appreciations of Dante Donne Traherne Blake Wordsworth Bront Rossetti Hopkins Yeats Eliot and Lowell A Bibliography of Australasian Poetry and Verse Percival Serle, 1925 The Academy and Literature, 1913 Chapbook, 1919
