agency racial and cultural perception and collective memory These perspectives are embodied in the four sections focusing on China and the early modern world circuits of migration and trade racism and imperialism and the significance of Pacific islands The last section on Pacific Islanders avoids a common failing in popular perception that focuses on both sides of the Pacific Ocean while overlooking the many islands in between The chapters in this section take on one of the key challenges for transpacific history in connecting the migration and imperial histories of the United States Japan China Korea Vietnam and other nations with the history of Oceania
