

THE SIN OF HAROLD DIDDLEBOCK

Harold Lloyd Rudy Vallee
Edgar Kennedy

In a novel idea, the film opens with sequences from Lloyd's classic silent comedy "The Freshman", moving from the climactic football game to follow the same character in later years. Harold Diddlebock is an accountant in the bookkeeping section of an advertising agency. Still filled with ideas and ambitions, but stifled in his attempts to do something with them, Harold's life takes a turn when he is fired. From that point, Diddlebock's mundane existence begins rolling toward his encounter with a philosophical bartender who makes special drinks using the customer's name as a guide. The collision between our mild-mannered hero and the amazing "Diddlebock" cocktail results in Harold donning the wildest zoot-suit imaginable, winning a fortune at gambling and waking up owning a circus and leading a lion named Jackie on a leash in a mad hilarious scheme to gain financing for the circus. Here is the opportunity to view a rare last work by one of the great film comics of all time.
