Mom, I thought of running with Peter. But he's in the school athletics team and I don't think I'd be able to keep up with him.

That's a great idea, Mom! I'll ask her right away.

Betty, why don't you ask your friend, Aisha? After all, you've not seen each other for a long time. And tell her not to worry about the registration fee. I'll take care of it.

Making National News Gene Allen,2014-01-31 For almost a century Canadian newspapers radio and television stations and now internet news sites have depended on the Canadian Press news agency for most of their Canadian and through its international alliances foreign news This book provides the first ever scholarly history of CP as well as the most wide ranging historical treatment of twentieth century Canadian journalism published to date Using extensive archival research including complete and unfettered access to CP s archives Gene Allen traces how CP was established and evolved in the face of frequent conflicts among the powerful newspaper publishers John Ross Robertson Joseph Atkinson and Roy Thomson among others who collectively owned it and how the journalists who ran it understood and carried out their work Other major themes include CP s shifting relationships with the Associated Press and Reuters its responses to new media its aggressive shaping of its own national role during the Second World War and its efforts to meet the demands of French language publishers Making National News makes a substantial and original contribution to our understanding of journalism as a phenomenon that shaped Canada both culturally and politically in the twentieth century Unpacking Students' Engagement with Feedback Anastasiya A. Lipnevich, Jessica To, Kelvin Tan Heng Kiat, 2023-11-01 Learners of all levels receive a plethora of feedback messages on a daily or even hourly basis Teachers coaches parents peers all have suggestions and advice on how to improve or sustain a certain level of performance This volume offers insights into the complexity of students engagement with feedback the diversity of teachers feedback practices and the influence of personal assessment beliefs in tension with prevailing contexts It focuses on two main sections what is students engagement with feedback And what is the variety of teachers feedback practices Under these themes the content covers a broad range of key topics pertaining to instructional feedback how it operates in a classroom and how students engage with feedback Unarguably feedback is a key element of successful instructional practices however we also know that a learners often dread it and dismiss it and b the effectiveness of feedback varies depending on teacher s and student s characteristics specific characteristic of feedback messages that learners receive as well as a number of contextual variables What this volume articulates are new ways for learners to engage with feedback beyond recipience and uptake With nuanced insights for research and practice this book will be most useful to teachers university teacher educators and researchers working to design and enact new ways of engaging with feedback in schools and beyond Gay Guerrilla Renée Levine Packer, Mary Jane Leach, 2015 A compelling portrait of composer performer Julius Eastman s enigmatic and intriguing life and music Composer performer Julius Eastman 1940 90 was an enigma both comfortable and uncomfortable in the many worlds he inhabited black white gay straight classical music disco academia and downtown New York His music insistent and straightforward resists labels and seethes with a tension that resonates with musicians scholars and audiences today Eastman s provocative titles including Gay Guerrilla Evil Nigger Crazy Nigger and others assault us with his obsessions Eastman tested limits with his political aggressiveness as reflected in legendary scandals like his June 1975 performance of John Cage s Song Books which featured homoerotic interjections and the uproar over his titles at Northwestern University These episodes are examples of Eastman s persistence in pushing the limits of the acceptable in the highly charged arenas of sexual and civil rights In addition to analyses of Eastman s music the essays in Gay Guerrilla provide background on his remarkable life history and the era s social landscape The book presents an authentic portrait of a notable American artist that is compelling reading for the general reader as well as scholars interested in twentieth century American music American studies gay rights and civil rights This Life of Sounds Evenings for New Music in Buffalo received an ASCAP Deems Taylor Award for excellence Mary Jane Leach is a composer and freelance writer currently writing music and theatre criticism for the Albany Times Union Educational Policy Innovations Sing Kong Lee, Wing On Lee, Ee Ling Low, 2013-10-27 This volume presents how high performing education systems over the world are constantly innovating their educational policies to nurture their citizens for the challenges of the future economy and the anticipation of the unknown. This volume includes a state of the art review of the literature in this field, several commissioned focal chapters focusing on the distinctive case of Singapore, and internationally commissioned chapters of several other accomplished education systems around the world. A comparative study of Singapore against other high performing education systems is included to provide greater insights to the possible applications to other education systems.
