Drawing and industrial art Duluth Public Schools (Duluth, Minn.), 1919 New Images of Thought in the Study of Childhood Drawing Laura Trafi-Prats, Christopher M. Schulte, 2022-10-21 This book provides a revitalised account of the study of children s drawing by outlining a departure from existing approaches privileging developmentalist accounts and presenting drawing as a specialised human endeavour separated from other material entanglements constituting children s everyday experiences The book takes on current developments in the fields of early childhood arts and early childhood literacies to advocate for process oriented new materialist and decolonial approaches that re conceptualise the study of children s drawing It proposes a future oriented approach centred on thinking experimentally with a focus on nonrepresentational elements such as movement sensation intensity rhythm story and place which singularly assemble in drawing events Thus the book discusses drawing as a process of sense making that is not enclosed in the individualised body of the child and that unfolds corporeally in time and space It revises the relation of drawing with symbolisation by suggesting that the use of language and signs in drawing form in entanglement with matter and sensation in processes of creative speculation connected with the movement of thought Presenting a series of contributions by internationally recognised scholars and artists the book aims to create synergies between theory and practice that speak of everyday realities interconnecting children learning and sense making Studies in Religious Imagination and Symbolism Albert D'Souza, 2005-01-01 Drawing multimodality's bigger picture: Metalanguages and corpora for multimodal analyses Janina Wildfeuer, Claudia Lehmann, 2024-07-30 Multimodality has most recently been described no longer as a research field or discipline on its own but rather as a stage of development within a field Bateman 2022a 49 The realization that 1 many different fields and disciplines now enter their own multimodal phase with new interest in multimodal phenomena and that 2 these disciplines all commit to the development of multimodality research with their own theoretical principles and methodological tools brings with it not only an immense breadth of potential analytical objects but also many new meta methodological issues We need to find ways of combining insights from the variously imported theoretical and methodological backgrounds brought along by previous non multimodal stages of any contributing disciplines Bateman 2022a 49 At the same time the search for a meta methodology for multimodal analyses is pushed further by the recent trend towards more empirical approaches to multimodal phenomena and the development and use of larger multimodal corpora that just as well require theoretical and methodological refinements We need to develop ways of strengthening claims with robustly applicable methods which nevertheless remain firmly anchored theoretically Bateman 2022b 64 For a productive handling of these issues disciplinary triangulation and finding a common language or metalanguage Maton newest results from data collection methods and multimodal corpus analyses that expand the current quantitative work by e g applying existing theories and methods to larger datasets or exploring the newest communication technologies We are particularly interested in seeing how works addressing these aspects contribute to finding ways of productive triangulation and integration for and within a meta methodology for multimodality research This Research Topic aims to bring together scholars from a variety of disciplines interested in multimodality research to review explore and advance the contributions that John Bateman as one of the key figures in multimodality research has made to both theory and method building as well as to the driving forward of multimodal empirical and corpus analyses We welcome contributions that for example critically address the theoretical and methodological advancements that John Bateman has made with regard to the notions of semiotic mode discourse semantics genre textuality etc apply one of the many approaches that John Bateman has developed for the empirical analysis of multimodal artefacts e g the GeM model for page based documents his work on multimodal film and audio visual analysis and the discourse semantics and or annotation approach to visual narratives to larger corpora or currently newly developing communicative situations expand on one of the abovementioned aspects with new ideas and insights from disciplines that have not yet been included in multimodality research

Popular Science ,1923-08 Popular Science gives our readers the information and tools to improve their technology and their world The core belief that Popular Science and our readers share The future is going to be better and science and technology are the driving forces that will help make it better Receptions and Transformations of the Bible Kirsten Jensen, 2009-04-22 These volumes of Religion and Normativity present the latest research in three central fields Volume II deals with Reception and Transformation of the Bible as it occurs in modern literature in both Danish and English philosophy including Kierkegaard and Jewish and Christian religious practice The researchers base their work on the theories and methods of the study of religion philosophy theology and literature Uncovering the History of Children's Drawing and Art Donna Kelly, 2004-01-30 Reactions to children's artwork have varied throughout different times and places Donna Darling Kelly is calling for a more joyful appreciation of our youngest artists She presents the dichotomy of the Mirror and Window paradigms First she explains the Mirror paradigm which art educators psychologists and art historians use it is a psychological focus on children's art It can be defined as the ability of the child to represent images of something other than the object itself Psychologists who believe in this theory are interested in the self-reflective qualities of children's drawing as they relate to language intelligence and cognitive development The opposing Window paradigm is an aesthetic perspective followed by people working in the arts The subscribers to this theory see children's art as an objective reproduction of reality that carries all of the meaning with the image The act of representation is the ultimate goal in this model not the truth behind the goal Darling Kelly would like to see the interested parties in the field of children's art placing less emphasis on the prevailing Mirror paradigm and embrace the Window paradigm Art educators often feel sidelined because subjects such as science and mathematics are requisites while art remains at best an elective Art is often classified as a sub discipline concerned primarily with therapeutic areas An unwanted effect of the Mirror paradigm is the stereotypical psychological model of the artist as a hopelessly neurotic or troubled soul This volume is a call to arms for the aesthetic Window paradigm so that art as an autonomous discipline can gain stature in the curriculum of all children's schools Proceedings, Abstracts of Lectures and a Brief Report of the Discussions of the National Teachers' Association, the National Association of School Superintendents and the American Normal School Association National Education Association of the United States, 1905
